REMEMBER OSCAR W. NEWMAN

For the first time in the history of Scioto county voters will have an opportunity at the election Tuesday to vote for a Scioto county candidate for member of the supreme court. This candidate is a gentleman who has lived his whole life here, who stands high in the community as a man and as a lawyer. His qualifications for the important position is admitted by everyone in a position to know. He would make an ideal member of our highest court, and his name is Oscar W. Newman.

The candidates for judicial office will go upon a separate ballot, and the names of candidates will rotate, without party designation. Mr. Newman is entitled to, and should receive a tremendously large vote in this, his home county. We would like to see every man when he goes to the polls Tuesday make a mark in front of his name on the judicial ballot. The size of the majority that Mr. Newman secures in his home county may be the deciding factor in putting him under the wire a winner.

Do not fail to vote the judicial ticket. And do not fail to vote for Oscar W. Newman for judge of the supreme court. He deserves your support.

TURKEY BEATEN
BY THE ALLIES,
SUES FOR PEACE

(By United Press.)

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 4.—The Porte today formally asked the powers' representatives here to open negotiations with the Balkan allies for an armistice. The French ambassador as spokesman for the diplomats here, replied that this was impossible but said that the Powers would commence negotiations with the allies if the Porte would put its communication in the form of definite peace proposals.

(By Associated Press.)

London, Eng., Nov. 4.—The Turkish ambassador has been directed by the Ottoman government to inform Great Britain of Turkey's willingness to receive assistance to bring about a suspension of hostilities and eventually peace.

(By United Press.)

London, Eng., Nov. 4.—With Turkey's admission of defeat by the Balkan allies, the danger of a general European clash over the situation has become acute. A special cabinet session was called today at which the Porte's request for mediation by the powers was the sole topic of discussion. No conclusion was reached.

A message from the British ambassador at Constantinople said the Turkish government begged the powers to act with the greatest haste. It was learned that one German cruiser sailed today for Constantinople and that another will follow.

(By United Press.)

Budapest, Hungary, Nov. 4.—Military experts estimated today that at least 130,000 men have been killed and wounded in the Balkan struggle thus far.

NEW RULES BY SUPREME COURT

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 4.—Revolutionary changes in procedure in equity cases in federal courts are affected in revised rules promulgated today by the supreme court of the United States. The object is to reduce the cost of litigation and eliminate delays.

Among the new rules of procedure issued by the supreme court is one not referred to by Chief Justice White, in his explanation from the bench, which would prohibit the issue of preliminary injunctions without notice to the opposition, and also restricting the issues of temporary restraining orders.

CAR STRIKE
RIOTS

(By United Press.)

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4.—Despite the presence of practically all the state militia, rioting continued in this city today over the street car strike. Early in the day a crowd stoned the cars, and charged supposed strike breakers. Open riots are feared tomorrow at the polls. No cars are being run.

RAILWAY MEN
GO ON STRIKE

(By United Press.)

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 4.—Thousands of Canadian Pacific railroad freight employees and clerks affiliated with the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, went on a strike today. A board of conciliation was refused by the government. It is expected that 5,000 men will be involved. The men demand higher wages and a recognition of the union.

BIG VOTE EXPECTED
AT THE ELECTION

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 4.—The vote cast for president at tomorrow's election will exceed all previous presidential records. Reports from all states indicate intense partisanship as the election draws near, and unusual activity on the part of campaign leaders to get out the vote in the three-cornered presidential contest, which indicated a determination to bring every voter to the polls.

Colonel Roosevelt, in a statement issued today, made the direct charge that in New York Republican leaders are urging voters to support Wilson to make the defeat of Roosevelt certain. This statement was met with a general denial from the Republican headquarters.

From Governor Wilson and from other leaders comes further admonition to get the voters to the polls so that the maximum vote would be cast.

The extent with which the Socialist party, with Eugene V. Debs as its presidential candidate, will enter in the vote of Taft, Roosevelt and Wilson, has become a matter of lively conjecture in the committee headquarters of the respective candidates. They assert the Socialists will poll a heavy vote, drawing largely from the Republican and Democratic parties.

In the majority of states, the polls will open between 5 and 7 o'clock. Full reports will not be available from any section until 5 o'clock, eastern time, in the afternoon; and comprehensive returns from any district will probably not be had before 9 or 10 o'clock.

The presidential candidates are to receive returns from state and local leaders in all parts of the country.

Statement by Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Because he had said he had learned that Abe Gruber, the New York lawyer and Republican district leader, had publicly advised his followers to vote the Democratic ticket "if they didn't feel like voting the Republican ticket," Colonel Roosevelt issued a lengthy statement today holding that this indicated an alliance between the two great parties.

"Mr. Gruber's attitude," said Roosevelt, "indicates that the Republican losses have not the slightest expectation of winning at this election and that their only purpose is indirectly to aid the Democrats in order to defeat myself and the Progressive party."

Roosevelt spoke this afternoon at Mineola and tonight will make an address at Oyster Bay.

How Wilson Will Get The Returns.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 4.—Governor Wilson will receive election returns tomorrow night over the same telegraph instrument which ticked out the victory of Grover Cleveland in 1892. The messenger, who delivered the instrument today was Commodore E. C. Ben-

POLITICIANS SAY IT'S
OF TRAGIC INCIDENTS

(By United Press.)

New York, Nov. 4.—With the close of the campaign tonight politicians were today discussing the windup with feelings almost akin to awe, and wondering what was yet to come. Never in the history of the United States has fate seemed to play such a part as it has in the contest just coming to a close. Attempted assassination and death have intervened in the race for highest honors.

In addition many of the congressional aspirants have been kept out of the campaign by sickness, while a number have died as the result of the strenuous battle they were forced to make. The two big tragic events that have been the attempted murder of Colonel Roosevelt and the death of Vice President Sherman. Then right on the eve of the election Governor Woodrow Wilson received a scalp wound when his head struck the top iron of his auto with a heavy blow as the car hit a bump in the road. To-day he is wearing a surgeon's plaster over a bald spot on his head.

The three presidential candidates were in fine shape for the windup, however. While Roosevelt was addressing the voters of Long Island this afternoon and evening Gov. Wilson was telling his native Jerseyites how to mark their ballots and President Taft was making speeches in Ohio, enroute to Cincinnati, where he will vote tomorrow.

Of the congressional candidates who have succumbed, two have dropped out through death during the last week. They were of Colonel Roosevelt and the Congressman Connell, Democrat, of New York, and Congressman Utter, Republican of Rhode Island.

FINE WEATHER FOR THE ELECTION DAY

(By United Press.)

Washington, Nov. 4.—"The finest ever" was the prediction today of the United States Bureau for election day weather tomorrow.

Bright, clear skies and warmer practically throughout the nation, are the concessions offered to voters by the weather man. Except in the far west, the weather will be ideal, the official forecast today declared.

Local rains are scheduled tomorrow only in Wisconsin, Oregon, Idaho and Northern California.

Western Montana and Wyoming are the only places where the weather conditions may lessen the vote. Here rains and snow are predicted.

President In Ohio,
Greeted By Crowds

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, O., Nov. 4.—President Taft's homecoming trip through Ohio today was attended by demonstrations in many cities along the route. About 200 persons at Conneaut gave the president his first greeting after he crossed the Pennsylvania boundary into Ohio.

"I am on my way to Cincinnati to cast my vote," said the president. "I hope all of you who have the privilege of voting will not forget to do so. I am not here to make a political speech. Your minds are already made up one way or the other."

At Ashtabula the schools were closed to give the children an opportunity to see the president. A large proportion of the working men also turned out. At Painesville the president was greeted by practically the entire town. Other stops scheduled for the day were at Wellington, Galion, London, Springfield, Dayton and Middletown. The president will arrive in Cincinnati this evening. Tomorrow evening he will receive returns at the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft.

BETTING IS LIGHT ON THE GENERAL RESULT

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—Campaign managers of all parties will spend today arranging to get to the polls the votes they have stirred up during the past month.

"If our full strength goes to the polls, we win," chorused Chairman Finley, Daugherty and Brown. None of these managers has received one iota from Saturday from their declaration of confidence in the outcome.

The betting on the election is very erratic, unexpected odds being offered in unexpected places. There was plenty of Democratic money in sight today, Little Bull Moose coin and less Republican.

At a local brokerage firm odds of from 4 to 10 to 1 were offered that Wilson would be elected and 10 to 1 that Cox would be the next governor. Even money was being wagered that Taft would run second in Ohio and that General Brown would run third. One bet of 15 to 1 that Taft would not be re-elected was recorded.

BODY FOUND IN LAKE ERIE

(By Associated Press.)

Cleveland, O., Nov. 4.—The nude body found floating in Lake Sunday was identified today as that of Edwin Todd, 40, of this city. The police believe he was murdered.

WILSON HAS CLOSED HIS CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press.)

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 4.—Except for the two addresses he will deliver today at Passaic and Paterson, Governor Wilson, has practically closed his campaign. The 14 electors of New Jersey are claimed by the Democrats. The president of the Senate will become governor of the state in case Governor Wilson is called upon to resign by reason of his election to the presidency.

LITTLE FRAUD
IN NEW YORK

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 4.—Five hundred and seventy-five men working 10 days in canvassing New York's 702,000 votes, found only 500 cases of irregularities and of these not more than 150 justify the issuance of warrants for arrest.

BOTH HELD FOR MURDER

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Charles Conway and his wife, Beatrice Ryall-Conway, were today held by the coroner's jury on the charge of murdering Sophia Singer, the Baltimore heiress. They were bound over to the grand jury without bail immediately after the finding of the jury.

GO HOME TO CAST BALLOTS

(By Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—The majority of the state officers were practically deserted today. The majority of state officials and many of the office attaches live in other cities and left today for their respective homes to vote at the election tomorrow.

SAVE TH
COUNTRY EARLY

Usually I ain't very long on advice but I've got a hunch I'll hand out for tomorrow. Let every patriot go to the polls and save th' country early an' often. That's my advice on votin' an' on th' weather this:

Ohio—Fair tonight and Tuesday. Warmer Tuesday.

Kentucky—Fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer tonight in East and in Central portion Tuesday.

OBITUARY

Wm. A. Stokley

Taps sounded for William A. Stokley, a Civil war veteran, when he succumbed to a paralytic stroke Sunday evening at half past nine o'clock, at his home, 1817 Fifth street. Two strokes, previous to the fatal one, placed his life in danger. Sunday evening he retired early, apparently in his normal condition. The third and final attack came shortly after his retirement, death closing a long and useful life at the age of 74 years.

William A. Stokley was born September 19, 1838, at Pittsburgh. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokley. In his youth Mr. Stokley moved to Portsmouth and has ever since claimed this city as his home. For a number of years he served on the police force of Portsmouth. During the Civil war he was a member of Co. G, First Ohio regiment. His first enlistment was for three months, but at its expiration he re-enlisted under Captain Charles Soule. In the three years of enlistment that followed he saw much active service and went through many severe hardships. He fought gallantly for the cause of the North. With the death of Mr. Stokley only three of the valiant Company G survive: Thomas Lawson, George Newman and Peter Kaps.

In 1866 Mr. Stokley was united in marriage to Miss Laura J. Brown. Five children were the issue of the marriage, all of whom, with their mother, survive: John, Mrs. F. M. Pride, Mary, Blanche and Blaine, all of this city. Two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Ella Wertz, Mrs. Lou Burd and Joseph Stokley, are also left to mourn the loss of a dearly loved brother.

In his long life as a resident of Portsmouth, Mr. Stokley became known to hundreds of people and he counted every one of them as his warm personal friend. Plain and unassuming in manner, he always had a pleasant word and a warm smile for his friends, and he was one of those men whom it was a pleasure to know and to meet. He was a brave soldier and he was equally brave in meeting the duties of a private citizen.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the residence, 1817 Fifth street, at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Dunning will conduct the services.

Louis Mohr
Louis Mohr, aged 51, one of Portsmouth's old guard of storekeepers, who has been suffering with locomotor ataxia for almost a year, quietly passed away at his home, No. 1216 Ninth street, Saturday evening, at 6:45.

Mr. Mohr was stricken while employed at the Worlth foundry at Newark, O., last spring, and had been bedridden practically for the past few months. He remained conscious almost up to the last.

Mr. Mohr was born at Chillicothe, the son of Louis Mohr, Sr., and Lena, Doll Mohr, who upon their arrival here from Germany, settled in that city, moving to Portsmouth when Louis was a mere boy. He learned the molder's trade at the old Ohio store foundry and afterwards worked as a tinner at the old Eberhardt shop on Market street. He was a member of the Iron Molders' Union of America and also the Modern Woodmen of America, was a man of companionable disposition and liked by all who knew him.

Mr. Mohr is survived by his wife, Mrs. Louise McIntyre-Mohr, one son, Henry, who is in the West, and one daughter, Mrs. Ella Mohr-Koth, wife of John Koth, Jr. Besides he leaves two brothers and three sisters: Rt. Rev. Abbott Charles, rector of St. Leo's Military Academy, Florida; Capt. Joseph Mohr, of the East End fire engine company; Mrs. Addie Mitchell, of Chicago; Miss Mary Mohr, of Indianapolis; and Mrs. Margaret Spangler, wife of George Spangler, of this city.

The funeral will take place from St. Mary's church on Tuesday morning, at 8:30, standard time, with interment in the parish cemetery.

Mary Elizabeth Davis
A patient sufferer with pulmonary trouble for more than a year, Mary Elizabeth Davis passed peacefully to her final resting place Saturday night at 7:40, at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Bridwell, of 2031 Sixth street. For many weeks she had realized that she was hopelessly ill, but she never uttered a complaint and went to her death with a sweet smile, the smile of victory on her lips. Kind, sweet-tempered Miss Davis had many dear friends in the city, who will be deeply pained to learn of her death in the bloom of life. She was a daughter of Benjamin and Louella Davis, and was born January 15, 1860, at Turkey Creek. In addition to her uncle and aunt, who so tenderly cared for her, Miss Davis leaves her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Bridwell, and one sister and one brother, Goldie and Roy Davis.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, from the First Christian church, and the last rites will be conducted by the Revs. Hamilton and Brooks. Miss Davis was a member of the Grandview Avenue Christian church.

Attended Kelley Funeral.
Thomas Doyle, a resident of Ironton, attended the last rites conducted at St. Mary's church Monday morning over the remains of John Kelley, a steelworker, who died last week in Chicago. Mr. Doyle was a lifelong friend of Mr. Kelley and paid his last respects to him at the church.

Brief services preceded the interment of the remains at Greenlawn cemetery.

Luhrie
John, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Lohrie, of 1310 Hutchins street, died Sunday after a brief illness with diphtheria. The funeral services were held Monday and interment took place in Greenlawn.

James Patton
Mrs. Jane Roberts of Jackson, street received a message Monday announcing the death of her father, James Patton, which occurred at a Cincinnati hospital on Monday. The message gave no particulars but stated that the remains would arrive here sometime Tuesday for burial.

Mr. Patton went to Cincinnati several weeks ago to look after some property and his relatives here knew that he was ill with pneumonia. He was born in this city in 1851 and is survived by his wife, who resides on Mill street, and the following children: Mrs. Jane Roberts, Mrs. Myrtle Ross of Seventeenth street, Ohio; George and Jesse Patton of this city and Fred of El Paso, Texas. Miss Katie Patton died some time ago. He also leaves several brothers at Wheelersburg.

Attended Funeral.
Henry Black, colored hostler, employed at Lynn's livery stable, Sunday attended the funeral of his uncle, Perry West, a prominent colored resident of Ironton. West was a former resident of Portsmouth. He died at the age

Three Services Will Be Held Thanksgiving Day

At the Ministerial Association held Monday morning the paper to have been read by Rev. H. B. Hemmerly was postponed until November 18, owing to Rev. Hemmerly's absence from the city.

A committee consisting of Rev. Clayton S. Brooks, Rev. Freeman Chase and Rev. J. W. Dunning was appointed to make arrangements for union Thanksgiving services. The committee decided to hold three district services, one in the west end of the city, one in the central part and one in the east end.

The east end service will be held at the Free Baptist church and will be conducted by Rev. L. I. Hart, pastor of said church. The central service will be held at the First Christian church where Rev. Alfred Hughes of Bigelow will preside, and the west end service will be conducted at Bigelow M. E., where Rev. J. W. Dunning of the First Presbyterian church will deliver the Thanksgiving message.

HERE'S A TIP FOR GANG RULERS
One of the leading tax-payers of the city telephoned The Times Monday that he had discovered a new way for the gang to spend money in salaries for its henchmen.

"How's that?" asked The Times man.

"Why," said the tax-payer, "you see they have a crew carrying water rent cards around to tax-payers as explained in The Times. Now, let them hire another crew to go around and gather up the mistakes made by the first crew, for from what I can hear, dozens of mistakes have been made. I know one was made in my case. The gang rulers ought not to overlook this chance to get more hefters on the pay roll."

Pen Man Home To Vote

Anderson Henderson, superintendent of the Ohio State penitentiary farm, arrived in the city Monday to vote. He has 29 prisoners in his charge, among them being Jared Hughes, sent up from Scioto county for wife murder. Hughes drove Henderson to the train and is a model prisoner in every respect.

SELBY CO. GETS BIG VERDICT

Judge Middleton, Monday, handed down his decision in the case of the Selby shoe company against the Philadelphia Casualty company. The court's finding was in favor of the plaintiff.

The shoe company sued for $10,563.86 on a credit insurance policy and the decree of the court gives them $6,999. Bannan and Bannan were the winning attorneys.

Dana L. Fearing has opened up a new barber shop on Gallia street opposite the Excelsior shoe factory. He will also operate a suit cleaning and pressing department as an adjunct to the shop.

F. D. Laudemann, machinist at the Terminals, went to McDevitt Monday on business.

Otis Patton returned home Saturday from a four weeks' hunt through Kentucky.

Of 63 years, leaving a wife and three children. He was a veteran of the Civil war and well known in colored circles.

Funeral of Miss Davis
The funeral services of Miss Marie Davis, who died Saturday, will be conducted at the First Christian church, Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

ATE TOO MANY GRAPES

In his zeal to satisfy a craving for grapes, Raymond, the eight-year-old son of Wesley Hornung, ate too many of the luscious fruit and for a short time Sunday afternoon his life hung in the balance. He was returning from a romp in Funk's Gut with a number of companions, when he dropped unconscious on Eighth street. Drs. Wendelken and Williams were called, and after working with the lad for several hours, succeeded in reviving him. Monday he was entirely out of danger and able to resume his playing.

Football Victim

While playing football on Jackson street Saturday afternoon, Harold, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Weeks, of Front street, had his left arm broken when a companion tackled him and pulled him down with much force. It was the first football accident of the local season.

Broke Leg In Fall

Losing his grip on a telephone pole near Oak Hill, on which he was working Saturday, J. N. Phillips fell a distance of fifty feet, sustaining a fracture of the right limb and numerous body bruises. He was brought to this city on an N. & W. train and removed to his home at 1805 Eighth street in Lynn's ambulance. Dr. Alford attended him and reduced the fracture. Phillips is an employee of the Jackson county branch of the Bell Telephone Company.

Horses Run Away

Taking fright at a passing locomotive, a team of horses owned by Samuel Briggs, of Harrisonville, ran off on Gallia street Monday morning. They were soon halted in front of Tom Haly's property near Clay street with small damage to the team and wagon.

MRS. M'KAY GETS DECREE

Alberta McKay was granted a decree by Judge Blair Monday divorcing her from Gordon McKay, whom she married in 1905 in this city. The wife in her application charged McKay with cruelty and habitual drunkenness and she took the stand and told the court a story substantiating her complaints.

Her evidence was verified by other witnesses, who testified to the good conduct and character of the plaintiff at all times. Mrs. McKay was restored to her maiden name as Alberta Willis. They have two children, who are now in the children's home. Miller and Crawford, attorneys.

JUDGE BLAIR BACK HOME

Judge Blair arrived home Monday noon from Mountville, W. Va., where he addressed two large meetings yesterday afternoon and evening in the interest of the "Drys." On the morrow the proposition of state-wide prohibition will be submitted to the voters and the result appears very much in doubt. The campaign has waged hot on both sides and both are predicting a victory.

Miss Grace Lawson, of Greenup, Ky., is the guest of Mrs. T. B. Lawson, of Second street, for a few days.

The Six-Hand Euchre club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Adolph Glockner, of Sixth street.

Plaintiff Is Given Verdict

Judge Blair's jury after deliberating more than an hour Monday afternoon in the case of the Healey Lumber company against the N. & W., returned a verdict for the plaintiff.

The plaintiff sued to recover $500 damages alleged to have been sustained through the defendant failing to deliver a certain car of lumber shipped from Alabama to Portsmouth in 1909. The jury's verdict was that the plaintiff had been damaged to the extent of $448.38. The jury was then excused until Friday.

MANY REGISTER ON LAST DAY

The following voters were registered and officially invested with the authority to vote at Tuesday's election by the board of elections at a special meeting held Monday afternoon: George E. Smith, Sanford Chinn, Peter Gardner (who was registered on the sidewalk as he has not recovered from injuries sustained in an accident), Mat Mahl, Ben G. Dnel, C. Bown, J. W. Rateliff, Charles Callaway, Gordon McCoy, Roy Locher, Arthur Barr, Oscar Adams, Otto Pool, John Mullen, John Odle, R. L. Gilbert, J. Pyather, Frank Walters, A. H. Englehart, John Englehart, Edgar Riegel, George F. Clark, W. J. McGuire, H. S. Green, Ralph Thomas, Ed Ford, Harry Shaw, Arthur Ann, Fred C. Winkler, John Benson, Charles H. Brockman, W. S. Kelley, Karl White, A. T. Everhart, L. G. Tatum, Joe Traey, Julius Biegang and Edward Wardley.

Bicycle Shop Sold Monday

A deal closed Monday transferred the ownership of the bicycle repair shop, operated on Gay street by John W. Solner, to Emil Arthur. The latter has been in the employ of Solner and is familiar with the work. He will continue to operate the business at the old stand, 421 Gay street.

SERMONS IN POLITICS

Several ministers in the city yesterday spoke on political themes. Rev. Hopper, of the United Brethren church, delivered a strong sermon on "The Christian at the Ballot Box." Rev. Hopper is a firm believer in a man exercising his right at the ballot box and he believes it the duty of the Christian to assist in cleaning up the political situation. His sermon was heard and much enjoyed by a large congregation.

Rev. E. G. Hamilton, of the Grandview Avenue Christian church, delivered a strong sermon on "Misplaced Confidence" but he did not allude to politics during his talk.

Miss Eva M. Davis was married October 27 to Rea H. Wright. They are now making their home in Indianapolis, Ind. Both are from Columbus. It will be a great surprise to her many friends here to learn of her marriage.

SOFT NEWS

Mrs. J. C. Kercheval and sons, Clarence, Jr., and Joseph, took their departure Saturday for Elkton, Florida, to join Mr. Kercheval, who recently purchased a large farm in Elkton, where the family will locate. Enroute Mrs. Kercheval and sons will visit in Cincinnati for a few days.

The Buckeye club will meet with Mrs. J. J. Rardin on Thursday of this week, instead of Wednesday, the usual day.

Mr. John Holthoff, of Shirley, Ind., arrived Saturday to join his wife, who is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rice, of 1329 Kinney street.

The W. F. D. club will meet on Tuesday evening with Miss Julia Dragan, of Eleventh street.

The Tuesday Afternoon Think club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Jacob Lauermann.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Augustin, Sr., of Front street, celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary Sunday, and in honor of the occasion their daughter, Miss Mary Augustin, arranged a family dinner in the evening, which was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Augustin, who spent the day yesterday with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Streiber. The dinner of four courses was served at six o'clock at the Augustin residence on Front street, and covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. B. Augustin, Sr. and Mrs. B. Augustin, Jr., and daughters, Carol Clara and Noraine, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Distel and baby, daughter, Monica, Mr. and Mrs. J. Augustin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Streiber and children, Bernadine and Harold.

Ralph Thomas spent Sunday in the city with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Clark and little son spent Sunday at Stockdale with Mr. Clark's parents.

Mrs. Harry Reardon will arrive home next week from a several weeks' trip in the East.

Richard Spencer, Clifford Moorehead, Lesky Janetzky and Earle Dixon spent Sunday at the home of Richard Spencer at Quincy, Ky. They had a jolly good time, but ask Dick Spencer if he knows the way to drive to Quincy. The same young men will spend next Sunday at Russell, Ky., at the home of Earle Dixon's grandmother, Mrs. E. Campbell.

W. W. Dixon returned Sunday from a four days' hunt with Fred Jaynes, of Columbus.

The Bigelow Home wards and Mothers' Jewels had a delightful meeting on Saturday at the residence of Mrs. Bruce Hoobler, on Sixth street. An interesting program, composed of a piano duet by Hazel and Mary Holmes, a reading by Marie Becker and piano solo by Miriam Neudecker was rendered, after which the hostess, with the assistance of Mrs. Roy Wyckoff, served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Lawrence Neudecker and Mrs. Terry Davenport were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Groves and son Harold, of 415 Third street, left Saturday morning for Laporte, Ind., Three Oaks, Mich., Chicago and Canada. If they can find suitable conditions they may locate at Three Oaks, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Groves have many friends here who regret their departure and hope they may return to Portsmouth in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin McMahon entertained a number of relatives Saturday evening in honor of their second wedding anniversary, and also the birthday of their one-year-old daughter, Mary Cecilia.

Miss Sallie Friel has returned from a seven weeks' visit with Mrs. Spelacy and other friends and relatives in Columbus.

There will be a called meeting of the L. C. B. A. society at St. John's hall tonight and every member is urged to be present, as there will be business of importance transacted. Miss Sallie Friel, President.

Miss Nann Newton, Librarian of the Public Library, arrived home after a vacation of two weeks. Miss Newton attended the Ohio Librarians' Association at Newark, after which she visited Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lin and Senator and Mrs. T. A. Egan at Fremont. Mr. Lin is proprietor of the leading hotel in Fremont and is a former Portsmouth resident, having managed the Washington hotel during his residence here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barnetson, who have been residing in a flat at 1225 Second street, are preparing to move this week to a cottage on Eighth street.

Portsmouth Easily Beat Maysville H. S. Team

(By EVAN WILLIAMS.)

The local high school football team literally smothered the Maysville team in the second game of the season at Millbrook park Saturday. The game was replete with sensational offensive and defensive plays on the part of the home team. Although the P. H. S. team was heavily out-weighted by the Kentuckians, the locals displayed wonderful speed and a much greater knowledge of football. Maysville is decidedly not in a class with Portsmouth on the gridiron as the overwhelming score of 85 to 0 attests. In every department of the game the home team proved its superiority. Williams and Padan tore great gains through the visitors' line and the Maysville team, bruised and shattered by their fierce plunges, were beaten back to their own goal line for touchdown after touchdown.

The local quarterbacks, Revare and Doerr, showed excellent judgment in selecting their plays. In the midst of a series of vicious line plays a clever forward pass would be executed for large gains. The Maysville team was bewildered and demoralized before Portsmouth's versatile attack and at no single point in the game threatened the Red and Blue goal line. Revare, the quarterback on the Portsmouth team, distinguished himself by scoring a touchdown from the kick-off.

Williams was the strongest man on the offensive for Portsmouth. He scored several touchdowns after 40 or 50 yard runs through the whole Maysville team. The Portsmouth ends put up a much better game against Maysville than against Ashland. They covered points and broke up interference in good shape and handled the forward pass adeptly. Each individual man on the line deserves special praise. Little can be seen of the star plays on the line, but it is there that the score of a football game is really decided. Maysville might just as well bucked up against the flood wall as against the sturdy Red and Blue line men.

Although the game was a great victory insofar as the score was concerned, the Portsmouth team should not become over-confident. Remember that the game Saturday was only a practice game for harder ones to follow. Hunting will prove quite a different proposition, and when the local team backs up against the up-river boys they will have to fight for every inch of ground gained.

The game Saturday proves that Portsmouth has the ability to develop another championship team. The High school boys are out to win and deserve a large attendance at every game throughout the season.

The Game In Detail.

First Quarter—Maysville kicked off to Portsmouth. Red Williams opened the game with a brilliant run of 45 yards to Maysville's 5-yard line. Padan scored the first touchdown on the game and Revare kicked goal; score 7 to 0. Maysville again kicked off to Portsmouth. Harris made several large gains and Williams scored the second touchdown of the game. Revare failed to kick goal; score 13 to 0. Maysville kicked off to Chick, who gained 15 yards. Jones repeated with 15 and Harris, Padan and Williams duplicated, Harris scoring the third touchdown of the game. Revare failed to kick goal; score 19 to 0. Portsmouth kicked off to Maysville. Maysville was held for four downs and punted on the fourth. Portsmouth fumbled and Maysville was again in possession of the ball. Held for downs; Portsmouth's ball. At this point a perfect forward pass was made to Revare at the side line and he scored the fourth touchdown. Revare kicked goal and the score was 26 to 0.

Second Quarter—Portsmouth kicked off to Maysville, who fumbled. Jones recovered the ball on the 30-yard line. Portsmouth scored a touchdown on a series of cleverly executed forward passes. Revare kicked goal; 33 to 0. Maysville receives Portsmouth's kick-off but fails to gain. Portsmouth gains the ball and marches down the field for the sixth touchdown, making the score 40 to 3. Revare kicked goal. Red Williams made a great run of 50 yards through the visitors' team shortly after the next kick-off. He stiff-armed four runners and scored a touchdown. On the next kick-off Revare made a spectacular run through the whole opposing team for a touchdown from the kick-off. After each touchdown Portsmouth failed to kick goal. Time was called for the first half with the score 52 to 0.

Second Half.

Third and Fourth Quarters—Portsmouth kicked to Maysville. The local team presented an all-out most entirely new line-up. Doerr played at quarterback and Benson, Adams, Dooley, Howe, Huddleson, R. Jones, Brady, Moulton, Brandel and Hopkins replaced the regulars in their respective positions. Each one of the new men played his position well and the team scored several more touchdowns during this quarter. Brandel made a 25-yard run for a touchdown on a forward pass. With the score 66 to 0 the regular team was sent back into the game. Hopkins was kept at half back and distinguished himself by scoring two touchdowns on forward passes. The final score was: Portsmouth 85, Maysville 0.

The score would have been much larger had the game been played the regular 15-minute quarters. The first half was divided into 10 and 12-minute periods and the second half into 8 and 10-minute periods.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming into vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.

One objection of using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the West Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and thin, weak, falling hair.

The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, harsh, faded hair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the color in a few days; and don't be tormented with dandruff, itching scalp and loose, falling hairs. West's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will quickly correct these troubles and give color, strength and beauty to your hair.

Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today and prove this to your own satisfaction. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

Liked The Typhoon

Radiant with comedy, pathos, intense situations and sensational climaxes, "The Typhoon" pleased two good-sized audiences at the Grand Saturday. The play is unrivaled in a Japanese atmosphere, despite the fact that the scenes are laid in Paris. It is a play away from the beaten path, far away, and one that demands all of your time to grasp its theme and portent. There is one dramatic scene in the play when Tokurano, driven to a frenzy about his nationality, chokes Helen to death. The Jap loses his masterful mind and ruthlessly kills the woman with whom he is deeply infatuated.

Victoria Montgomery as Helen, and David Vandersmith as Dr. Nobuo Tokurano, were splendid in their parts and their characterizations carry the play through. They are splendid actors. The show was nicely staged and was enjoyed by those who appreciate a drama of verity and a plot that has continuity to it, in which its characters are effectively contrasted.

Wholesale Grocers Sherman Comes Home To Vote

Following his annual custom, J. D. Bridges will entertain the local wholesale grocers and a few friends at dinner tonight. It will be an enjoyable little affair and is always anticipated with keen pleasure by those who are so fortunate as to be among the guests. Mr. Bridges inaugurated the dinner ten years ago in honor of his birthday, and he has kept them up, and each year has seen them grow into more favor. The guest list tonight will include: Messrs. W. C. Silex, Lawrence, Neudoerfer, George M. Apple, George A. Goodman, Wm. Briggs, J. C. Bauer, H. Augustin, Sr. B. Augustin, Jr., E. O. Jones, W. C. Ferguson, C. H. Taylor, J. B. Russell, of Maysville, H. S. Grimes, J. D. Bridges, Ed Strickmeyer, E. W. Davidson and H. E. Taylor. W. A. Murdoch, who recently died in London, had attended these elegant dinners annually. His genial smile and friendly hand-shake will be missed.

Preacher Made Fine Impression

Rev. Adolphus Smith of Buffalo, N. Y., who is supplying the pulpit at the German Evangelical church, created a very favorable impression Sunday. Rev. Mr. Smith has taken up a temporary residence at No. 708 John street.

Bill Home To Vote

Will Ballman, who was janitor of the city buildings during the Seney administration, rounded in Monday noon to vote. Since leaving here last spring Bill has been working in Lexington, Ky., and Cincinnati. He says Wilson sentiment predominates in Cincinnati and Hamilton county is sure to go Democratic.

Children Doing Fine

John W. Moore is in receipt of a letter stating that his five children are doing nicely at the Odd Fellows' home in Springfield, to which institution they were admitted July 5th. His eldest daughter, Hazel, is now taking music lessons there.

Visited Sunnyside.

The Sunnyside Highlands were again the scene for sight-seers on Sunday afternoon. There was a constant stream of people out Waller street. Many came on foot, others in automobiles and buggies, and all seemed taken up with the new addition.

Labor Council Will Meet

Central Labor Council holds a regular meeting at its hall in the Carr building tonight. Only routine matters are slated for consideration.

Pistol Not Dangerous

Jim Henderson reported to the police Saturday evening that a man with a gun was camping in the vicinity of Eleventh and Chillicothe streets. Officer Clark found a Kentuckian with a pistol in his pocket, but the weapon was an old one and broken and unloaded and allowed the man to go on his way unharmed.

Contractors Here.

Contractor M. H. Shumway and son, Morton, dropped into the city Sunday from Washington, D. C., to spend the day with their family. They returned on Monday morning to continue the work on the roadway which is rapidly nearing completion.

Occupy New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cunningham, who have been residing at 1616 Eighth street, moved today to their new home at 1321 Seventh street which they recently purchased. Mr. Cunningham is employed with his brother-in-law, Phil Thompson of the Phil Thompson Meat Packing Co.

Visited Her Father.

Police Clerk Pearl Roush had as guest Saturday afternoon, his only daughter, Helen. She is an unusually sweet and pretty child and kept her papa company while the mother was out shopping. Everybody around headquarters took a great fancy to the tot.

Showed Sherman Respect

The government building was closed between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. Saturday out of respect to the memory of Vice President James S. Sherman. The big flag on the building was at half mast.

Will Conduct Revival

Rev. E. G. Hamilton, of the Grandview Avenue Christian church, will leave Monday, November 11, for Radcliff, where he will conduct revival services for two weeks at the Christian church, under the auspices of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society. The services are voluntary, the local Grandview avenue church sending Rev. Hamilton from their church and paying his expenses.

Salesmen Will Vote

Salesmen of the Joseph G. Reed Company are in the city to remain until after election day. They were extremely few traveling men on the job Monday. They are all heading home to exercise their inalienable right to vote.

Will Give Supper

The men of the First Baptist church will give a supper Tuesday evening in the Kirkicker building, formerly occupied by the Central Grocery company. The supper will be served by the men of the church, who have prepared an elegant hot repast.

Election returns will be announced during the supper hours and music will be furnished by the ladies quartet of the First Baptist church.

JOSEPH L. SWITALSKI

In the first ten months of his term which began in September, 1911, Joseph L. Switalski, as recorder, paid into the county treasury excess fees to the amount of $2,237.22.

In the four years preceding his predecessor turned in a total of $765. This unprecedented gain was made without any more expense to the county in clerk hire and help over that used by his predecessor.

State Examiner F. H. Doyle officially reporting on the conduct and condition of this office by Recorder Switalski says:

"There can be no criticism of any kind offered as to the conduct of this office. All books are accurate, and models of neatness and such system has been adopted in all departments of the office as renders it capable of meeting every public demand."

The voter who wants the highest degree of efficiency, the closest economy and the best treatment from the office of recorder will vote for Joseph L. Switalski.

is the Democratic candidate for County Auditor. He has been employed in his father's big hardware and agricultural implement store for 15 years, as a book-keeper, and has acquired the reputation of being one of the best accountants in the city.

Skill and experience in keeping accounts and making calculations is valuable to the office of auditor, in fact it is absolutely necessary to a safe and efficient conduct of the office.

"Bud" Stahler has that necessary skill, experience and knowledge and as incumbent of the auditorship he would give the office that superb efficiency for which it was famed in the days of the unrivaled Milt Shumway.

Council Will Meet.

New Boston's village council convenes in session tonight with regular business matters up for disposal.

THOMAS C. BEATTY, Non Partisan Candidate for Probate Judge

To the Voters of Scioto County: I desire to announce that I am a candidate for a second term for the office of Probate Judge of Scioto County. And in making this announcement I wish to sincerely thank the people of Portsmouth and Scioto County for the universal kindness that has been shown to me throughout all of my first term. And especially do I wish to thank the hundreds of parents who have so kindly aided, advised and assisted me in juvenile matters arising in this court. And whatever the future may hold in store for me, I shall feel throughout the years to come, that I have done all I could for all persons needing the assistance of this Court. It has always been customary to give an official a second term and no more, and this I desire at the hands of the voters of Scioto County. This office has been made a non-partisan one, which is exactly as it should be, and I desire to assure the people of this County that, if elected again I will constantly devote all of my time to the best interests of all of the people of this city and county, impartially, without fear or favor.

Very Truly,
THOMAS C. BEATTY.

UP TO THE VOTERS

Here is something for the voters of Scioto county to remember when they go to the polls next Tuesday:

The only REAL fight being made under the name of the Republican party in Scioto county is the fight of the old gang to retain control of the court house and thus entrench itself in supreme control in both city and county.

The election of Woodrow Wilson next Tuesday is conceded by every political expert and authority in the land, and it is only a question of the majority he will have.

The election of James M. Cox and his associates on the Democratic state ticket is also conceded by an overwhelming majority.

These facts are known and admitted by the Republican leaders in Scioto county, but they are bound up in the meshes of the gang of freethinkers that has so long controlled the party locally. These leaders are putting up a brave front and making a battle ostensibly for Taft, but really for the continuance of the old gang with all its rottenness and corrupting influences, in the court house offices.

Independent Republicans and citizens generally know what this means. To Republicans it means that they will have no voice in party affairs, to citizens, all it means is reckless extravagance and mismanagement, while the man who protests will be hounded and vilified.

People should realize the importance of this fight. The last desperate stand of the old gang with its Tynes, its Hutch, its Mooges, its Jobies, its Dittys, its Eckharts, its Swineys, its McElhansys, its Hillers, its Caldwelles, its Bergys, etc., etc.

The thing to do is to SMASH THE OLD GANG and put it forever out of business. The way to do it is to defeat the gang leaders who are masquerading on the Republican county ticket.

WILSON A WINNER

Again, let it be repeated that at this hour, as the presidential campaign is practically brought to a close, no human event set for the future could be more certain than the election of Woodrow Wilson.

The lines of the Democracy are unbroken, and that, with the well nigh even division of its old and once all powerful antagonist, would be sufficient to land him a winner.

But unanimity among his party is not alone the cause of the sweeping victory to which he will lead.

Hundreds of thousands of Republicans and independent voters of all beliefs will march to the polls under his standard tomorrow and make assurance doubly sure.

The cry of calamity, which has been set to echoing all over the land these days, will have no more effect upon Wilson's success than did the unpatriotic appeal to religious bigotry.

Business and industry refuse to be alarmed. They are not only reconciled to the inevitable, but they cheerfully and hopefully contribute their part by continuing in their course with unwavering activity. They recognize that the election of Wilson, so far from being a menace to the progress of the country, offers the best promise of a release from those interests and abuses which have fastened upon government and administration and made general conditions unhealthy to the public welfare.

Impartial reviews up to the very eve of the election indicate the tide which set so strongly towards Wilson from the day of his nomination, has continued its steady sweep. Forty-one states with 400 electoral votes—134 more than are necessary to elect—are set down as absolutely sure for him, and he has the better chance of carrying others with 126 votes.

Wilson is a winner!

AGAIN THE FIRE ALARM

Citizens of Portsmouth owe a vote of thanks to those Republicans who rang the fire alarm on our city gang rulers and showed up two things: First, that the city gang was spending money to replace a fire alarm system that was already doing the work, and second, that it was paying the Garnewell Company $2,125 more for the work than another firm had bid and for which sum it had guaranteed to put in a satisfactory system.

It was a timely illumination of the methods of the city gang, coming as it does, at a time when this gang is trying to cinch its hold on offices by putting its henchmen into the county offices. It is the red light of danger to the voters, and it is their own fault if they do not heed the warning and vote on Tuesday to forever smash bossism and the gang.

We can well understand the wrath of our city rulers at Captain N. W. Evans, Bannon & Bannon and Mark A. Crawford, all Republicans, for ringing the alarm. No wonder the gang leaders have been trying to bluff and bullyrag and bulldoze them in its old familiar style. But we don't believe these methods will work this time. We believe that the day of bosses and gangs has gone by and that the people will speak in no uncertain terms Tuesday, when they bury the gang hirelings beneath an avalanche of votes.

STILL MORE OF BILL SIKES

We have referred before in these columns to Bill Sikes, the villainous character created by the brain and pen of Charles Dickens.

We have pointed out certain analogies between this character and the local gang. Let us continue the comparison just a little further.

Bill Sikes, along with his many vicious habits of robbery and crime, possessed yet one other vice more dangerous, more disreputable than all the rest put together.

It was the vice of corruption of youth.

He taught little boys to steal. He took them at an age when their characters were moulding and initiated them into the ways of the criminal.

As Bill Sikes was in his way a corruptor of the youth of London, so the gang is in its way a corruptor of the young electorate of Portsmouth and Scioto county. It has set up before them false standards. By making a mockery of good government, it has caused men with independent ideas—men who still cling to the old fashioned theory of the government of the people, for and by the people, to be regarded by a large percentage of the young voters with feelings akin to ridicule. The gang discourages real ability and puts a premium upon mediocrity.

It breeds in the minds of the young a contempt for political honesty.

It has caused the waste of public funds to be taken as a matter of course—something to be expected and tolerated.

It made the corruption of the ballot so common that it became hardly longer regarded as a crime.

It has made slander and defamation of character political institutions.

It has caused the idea that public office is a public trust to be treated as a joke.

It teaches the damnable doctrine that no matter how debasing the means, it is justified by the ends, so long as that end is the retention of the gang in power.

Taken all in all there is no worse influence upon the lives of the young men of the city and county than this same gang and its methods.

The aim of our schools and colleges are, and rightly, to instill into the young in their charge the desire of attainment—the wish to do something worth while. To this end the youth studies and dreams. Men like Jefferson and Lincoln are his ideals. He strives to be, like them, independent and wholesome in thought and action.

What must be the effect upon the young man, if, when he comes out of school and faces the battle of life, he finds that if he would seek political preferment he must bow-low to a corrupt political system and bend the knee to a gang of peanut politicians?

What wonder that so many quit in disgust?

What wonder that the gang fills the county and city offices with time servers, political accidents and nonentities who know and aim to do no more than draw salaries and serve the gang?

What wonder that men with real ability—the men the county most needs, stand back and refuse to enlist in the public service under such terms?

If Scioto county wants the service to which she is entitled; if she wants her best men in office; if in short, she wants to realize the greatest good to the greatest number, she must get rid of the gang.

The gang has been doing some telling blows by the people in the last few elections. Defeat is this time and it is done for good.

The Democratic county ticket is composed of men of ability and independent initiative; men who will, if elected, render to the public that faithful service which is its due and which it has a perfect right to require.

Go to the polls tomorrow and put an end to the baneful influence of the gang by voting the Democratic ticket.

PITY THE POOR MAN

Daily President Taft continues to issue double-jointed pronouncements from the White House, in which he predicts his own re-election and warns of the wreck and ruin that would follow the election of Woodrow Wilson.

Saturday he took to a bit of specializing and alarmed the nation that the Democratic theory of free sugar would destroy a vast enterprise and undermine the fabric of all our industrial interests.

That is ridiculous. It would be a roaring farce if one did not appreciate what a pitiable figure Mr. Taft is cutting.

Free sugar ruin the country! Why, Taft is the man who negotiated a treaty with Canada, got it confirmed, got it approved by congress, and had it been confirmed by the Canadian parliament, it would have put wheat, corn, oats and potatoes on the free list.

This country produces $25,000,000 worth of sugar cane and sugar beets; it produces $2,500,000,000 worth of wheat, corn, oats and potatoes.

Mr. Taft isn't consistent, nor is he as cheerful as he first starts out to let on like he is.

He is going to be the worst beaten candidate ever up for re-election, and he has got some hunch of it, too.

He is to be pitied, though, rather than mocked at, for he is an amiable and personally honest soul with an infinite capacity to blunder and mess things up.

SWITZER AND THE OHIO

The Times has no desire to misrepresent R. M. Switzer on his position in regard to improvement of the Ohio river.

It has not charged, as Mr. Switzer seems to try to impress, that he was opposed to such improvement.

It supposes he voted to continue the canalization of the Ohio—if present when the vote in the appropriation was taken; what it claims is, that he has been weak, inactive, indifferent and ineffective.

How weak, how ineffective may be judged that neither in his literature, nor his campaign talks has he, in so far as we have read and heard, once made reference to this project so important to his district. Why he made a speech right here in the city of Portsmouth, Portsmouth that has spent thousands of dollars promoting the project, which is to get one of the dams, and looks upon the creation of the nine-foot stage as the most essential factor in her future progress, and yet he did not give one solitary word to it.

How indifferent and ineffective he has been may be judged that not once during his congressional service has there occurred, in our observation, a single newspaper comment or legislative record as to his interest or activity.

What a contrast he and the man who made him congressman, Rom Johnson, offer on this vast enterprise to the man they combined to throw out of congress, Henry Bannon. Bannon in his service was looking after the improvement of the river generally and the advantage of his district particularly, and was getting results. Had he been permitted by the Scioto-Lawrence-Gallia buses and machines to remain at Washington another term, we would now have the Portsmouth dam, instead of having to wait until next year to see it merely begun.

What Switzer would have done in congress, how he would have voted, "if present," may be interesting, but the fact that few, if any, congressmen were absent and not voting as often as he, and the fact that he was a cipher in congress are important.

This district wants someone who will attend the sessions of congress, who will vote and who knows the interest of his people and will look diligently after them.

Such a congressman Charles M. Caldwell would make.

DO NOT FORGET HIM

The most active, the most pestiferous candidate in this whole campaign is George A. Dippy, alias Ditty, who wants to rattle around in the office of recorder.

The voters of Portsmouth ought not to forget "Dippy." They should remember him all right and hand him a jolt tomorrow that will put him down and out for keeps.

Ditty is one of those precious hirelings and jobsters of the gang, who deserted their posts and left the city to possible disaster, according to their own claims.

Dippy was engineer at the water plant up to the stroke of midnight on December 31, 1907. He wasn't much of an engineer at that, take him on his own statement. He and the other misfits down there used to be croaking all the day long that the plant was on the verge of collapse and only their tireless labor and unrivaled skill kept it a-going.

Well, "Dippy" and the rest of 'em, somewhere on the afternoon of the said 31st day of December, conceived the brilliant scheme of serving notice upon the administration that was to come in with 1912, that unless it gave them a written guarantee to continue them in their jobs for two years, they would quit. The guarantee was not given, and keeping their threat, Dippy and the whole crew of deserters did quit at the stroke of 12, leaving the lives and property of the city in imminent peril, according to their own claims. And just let that sink into you.

But nothing serious happened. Yes, it did, too; the discovery that the deserters didn't know anything about running the plant. The men who look it over from them did. They found the machinery greasy, neglected and in bad shape, either from laziness or ignorance, but they kept it running, and by the labor of their own hands largely and by diligence and skill repaired it so that it worked excellently for four years and until the gang hirelings got hold of it again, and now we hear again that it is on the verge of collapse, and the people, especially those on the hill-tops, are complaining of the miserable service they get through it.

The point is this: If "Dippy" didn't realize his duty to the public, if he deserted his post, leaving the town and all in it, according to his own declarations, in peril, how can he be thought fit for another public job.

INSULTING THE PROGRESSIVES

Everyone, no matter how much he may differ from them, if he be honest and sincere himself, must conceive that on the average Bull Moosers are just as honest and sincere as the average of any other party.

But the gang and its creatures, being neither honest nor sincere themselves, will not admit that.

When the Progressives took shape as a definite and vital party, the gang began to beg and plead with it to endorse its nominees and name more beggarly in this as the gang creatures themselves.

But this failed, and then the gangsters tried bluffing and bulldozing. They demanded nomination on the ground that the Bull Moosers had gone into the May primaries and they were bound by that primary to adopt the candidates the gang, by trick and combination, had put over.

That failed also, and according to no less authority than Dr. O. W. Robe, whom the gang didn't seem to tie up, and is a nominee for corner, the gangsters then tried in effect to buy the Bull Moosers, offering if the nominees were placed on their ticket, to establish headquarters and finance a campaign for them.

Believed and rejected at every turn, the gangsters thereupon sent some of these same candidates and others upon the stump to berate and vilify every Bull Mosser.

Not satisfied with that, they are now having their breed of hirelings and liars circulate the story that they were bought off by the Democrats from not nominating a full ticket with a contribution of $20 to their campaign.

Think of that, Mr. Bull Mosser, accusing your whole party of selling out for the measly sum of $20! But that's the way of the gang.

HUDSON AND FRICK

The next legislature will be the most important in sixty years, owing to the vast amount of work to be done in shaping up laws to meet the requirements of the new constitution.

The people should be awake to the situation and vote only for men who will stand squarely for progressive laws. In this county they have the opportunity to vote for two men who stand squarely pledged to support progressive measures. One of these men is J. I. Hudson, candidate for re-election as state senator, and the other is Adam Frick, candidate for re-election as representative. There is no doubt where they stand. They are out in the open for the people rather than for monopoly.

On the other hand, C. F. McCoy, Republican candidate for state senator, and John H. Gillean, Republican candidate for representative, skulk in the shadow of the interests that have ever fought for legislation against the interests of the great mass of the people. The men who lobbied against all the humanitarian measures in the last general assembly are openly fighting for McCoy and Gillean. Why?

Mr. Voter, you have your choice. Hudson and Frick stand for men; McCoy and Gillean stand for dollars.

You can make your choice.

THE MASK TORN OFF

One characteristic of the old gang is that it seeks to disguise its plans and aims. It comes to the people every time in disguise. Once in office, the mask is thrown off.

For instance, who, in Portsmouth, dreamed last fall that Wells A. Hutchins was really running for mayor on the Republican ticket? Not a soul. The gang had put up for mayor a well meaning and rather popular young man who went out and solicited votes as an enemy to gangism and gang leaders. He looked enough voters to be victorious. And then the real mayor came out into the open. The mask was torn from Freddie Tynes and Wells A. Hutchins stood forth as the real mayor of the city. Mr. Tynes has been the figure head, Hutchins the substance, the real city administration. Through him the old gang has connected with the city pay roll, and reckless extravagance runs riot with city finances.

The same gang is trying to cinch its hold this Fall by regaining complete control of the court house. They have their heels and dummies on the Republican ticket, but the mask will be torn off the morning after election, if they should win.

Are you going to help the gang plotters, Mr. Voter? Or are you going to vote for yourself and your home?

THE GANG AND THE WATER WORKS

Taxpayers should remember that the same gang that was so reckless with money in purchasing a pretty new fire alarm system, is also charged with the expenditure of a vast sum for a new city water works. The city gang rulers are proceeding with the water works on the same lavish scale and with the same disregard for economy that characterized them in the fire alarm deal.

With the work only begun, the officials have arranged to spend $100,000 more than the people voted them for the plant. By the time the plant is finished, if the gang is continued in power in the city and county, the water works plant is liable to cost over twice as much as the sum originally specified. There is every indication of that now.

Citizens should remember that the Cox gang built a water works plant in Cincinnati, and the enormous sum it cost the taxpayers before it was completed. Wouldn't it be a good idea to jolt the local gang so hard this fall that it would absorb a few ideas of economy in affairs?

WHY NOT SEE THE MAYOR?

Still the Blade is silent and refuses to act upon our tip to see Mayor Tynes and get up-to-the-minute dope upon boozing in the police department. It professes great indignation at what it said had happened three or four years ago. Why does it turn its back upon what is happening today? Why will it not be fair and give us all the latest facts?

Of course, it might be a shock for Blade readers to get real news instead of history, but can't it break over just once?

GILLEN'S NON-UNION HOUSE

A few days ago we suggested to the gang organ that since it was so much interested in union labor, it might inquire into that House John H. Gillean, gang candidate for representative, is said to have built with non-union labor on Carey's Run. The organ has not responded. Why is this so? Are not the eminent advocates of union labor who own the Blade interested in keeping Gillean in the straight and narrow path of unionism?

Fire Hose Severed By Belt Line Car

A belt line car in charge of Motorman Glenn Bierley and Conductor Walter Schuyler ran over two lines of hose belonging to the Gallia street auto truck Sunday morning at six o'clock.

It was the first trip of the car, and as it neared the fire at the Portsmouth brick plant on North Chillicothe street the motorman failed to notice the lines of hose stretched across the tracks and ran over it, the hose being cut in two with scissors-like precision.

The loss is quite heavy, as two new lines of hose are practically ruined. The incident hampered the firemen not a little, as it put two streams of water out of commission.

That failed also, and according to no less authority than Dr. O. W. Robe, whom the gang didn't seem to tie up, and is a nominee for corner, the gangsters then tried in effect to buy the Bull Moosers, offering if the nominees were placed on their ticket, to establish headquarters and finance a campaign for them.

Believed and rejected at every turn, the gangsters thereupon sent some of these same candidates and others upon the stump to berate and vilify every Bull Mosser.

Not satisfied with that, they are now having their breed of hirelings and liars circulate the story that they were bought off by the Democrats from not nominating a full ticket with a contribution of $20 to their campaign.

Think of that, Mr. Bull Mosser, accusing your whole party

Vote For Good Roads

The voter who believes in progress and improvement should not forget that on tomorrow there will be submitted to him a proposition that means much to the future of the whole of Scioto county.

This is the proposal to authorize the county commissioners to levy two mills for road and bridge purposes.

We can but reiterate that the great need for the advance of Scioto county is better roads, good roads benefit all.

Bad roads have been and are a vast injury to Scioto county. We may change that through the two mill levy, which will be submitted on a separate ballot.

Vote for good roads, vote for Scioto county, our home.

WITH THE SICK

A diphtheria quarantine on the Flood home, on the West Side, was raised Monday. Mrs. Emma Flood, who was suffering with the malady, has entirely recovered.

Granhill Brothers young son of Mrs. Mary Brothers, of the North End, is a very sick youth, suffering with an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. William Gorgens, of Fourteenth street, became alarmingly ill Saturday evening with stomach trouble, but was reported much improved today.

Word from Cincinnati is that the condition of Mrs. August Maier, who was admitted to Bethesda hospital is very satisfactory.

Mr. L. Stenberger and family came down from Jackson in their touring car Sunday and took dinner at the Washington hotel.

Mr. A. B. Miller, accompanied by his wife, a week, formerly Miss Helen Thompson, took their departure Saturday for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will make their future home. Mr. Miller is manager of the Hotel Broad. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been the guests of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Thompson, of Eighth and John streets.

Mrs. George Bromley, accompanied by her daughter, Thelma, and sister, Mrs. Oscar Phillips, went to Cincinnati, Saturday. Mrs. Bromley is president of the local Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and made this trip in the interests of the order.

Prof. John Weaver, who left here last week for London, Ont., has written Rev. A. F. Hughes, of Bigelow church, that he encountered a snow of several inches in depth when he reached Canada. Prof. Weaver went to London to assist in a big revival meeting.

Miss Kathleen Elyar, of Waverly, who has been teaching school at Groveport, O., has resigned and has gone to St. Petersburg, Florida, to spend the winter. She taught school last year in Dayton, Washington.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Howard Gibbs, 1516 Third street.

Trinity Standard Bearers will meet Friday at the residence of Margaret and William Anderson, on Rose Ridge.

Mrs. M. W. Brown's class in Trinity Sunday school will meet in social session Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. John Lutz, of Fifth street, in honor of Mrs. Charles Schaefer, who will move to Huntington, W. Va., in the near future.

Mrs. Henry Amberg had as dinner guests Sunday Misses Mary and Tamara Purcell.

The meeting of the Young People's Missionary Society of Bigelow has been postponed from Tuesday of this week until Tuesday evening of next week, with Misses Antoinette and Grace Cline, of Eighth street.

Mr. Barber Russell, of Mayville, Ky., is in the city to attend Mr. J. D. Bridges' annual dinner to the wholesale grocers of the city, which takes place this evening.

Mrs. Dudley B. Hutchins and daughter, Dorothy, who have been living in Oakland, Cal., have gone to Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter.

Miss Alice Stevens has returned home from a trip to Henderson, S. C., Richmond, Va., and Huntington, W. Va.

Mrs. H. B. Hastings, of Ironton, is the guest of Postmaster John K. Hastings and family, of Sciotoville.

Mr. S. P. Sullivan, who is looking after Uncle Sam's interest in the new addition being added to the federal building here, was joined Sunday by his wife and daughter, who have been visiting in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wise motored to Buena Vista, Sunday. They found the river road in very fine shape.

The Elks' social committee will hold a meeting Tuesday and name a committee to take charge of the Thanksgiving dance. All the dance committees will be named by the general social committee this evening.

THE READY CASH

required to buy or build a home will never be accumulated while you are paying rent. If you wait until you have the ready cash in hand before purchasing your home, you will probably never have one. The heavy drain for rent will keep you poor.

Under our helpful plan for HOME OWNING you are not required to have the full amount of cash with which to pay for your home. We advance you the money and you pay a portion part each month as you now pay rent. You pay the rent to yourself. Let us talk the matter over with you.

THE PORTSMOUTH SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY,
Opera House Building

Mrs. Linda Anderson, of the Home for Aged Women, is visiting friends in Ironton.

The silver and towel offering, to be given at the Home for Aged Women Tuesday afternoon, promises to be a most enjoyable affair, both socially and financially. The ladies in charge will serve tea to the welcome guests.

Charles Weber, Sr., and daughter, Miss Henrietta Weber, spent Sunday with relatives at Catlettsburg, Ky.

Miss Jennie Shoemaker, who is employed at the Selby shoe factory, spent Sunday visiting her parents at Chillicothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahle and daughter, Miss Martha, Mrs. Grubbs and Mr. George Mitterdorf motored to this city from Ironton Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zull of Officers street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the primary room of the chapel.

The members of the Modern Priscilla club are entertaining with a halloween dinner this evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Schwartz, on Court street, with their husbands as guests of honor. Covers are laid for the following: Messrs. and Mesdames Clinton Seart and guest, Miss Viola Day, of Detroit, Mich.; Win Nye, Maurice Coe, Walter D. Gilliland, Harley Marconnet, William Burt, Arthur E. Everard, F. C. Hungerford, J. D. Dunning, S. D. Ruggles and William Schwartz.

Miss Etalene Grice, who is taking a post-graduate course in Emile languages at Bryn Mawr, has been chosen by her class to represent it in the Post-Graduate club and the honor carries with it a membership on the executive board of the club.

Mr. William A. Bocook, N. & W. engineer, and Miss Dora E. Wallace, bookkeeper, were united in marriage Wednesday, October 30th, by Rev. Father Goebel at St. Mary's church. After the ceremony the bride and groom and attendants, Miss Ada Horsley and Mr. Patrick A. Bocook, were served with an excellent supper at the home of Mrs. Catharine Bocook, of Findlay street. The guests of the evening were: Misses Ada Horsley, Bertha Horsley, Edna Phipps, Anna Young, Lettie Poston, Vina Thompson, Nell Chamberlain, Mrs. Ethel DeLottel and Messrs. Nicholas DeLottel, William Loper, Earl Osborn, Herbert and Harrison Wallace, Otis Davis, Patrick Bocook, George Hudson. Later in the evening a crowd collected at the home of the groom and gave them a joy ride all over town in an express wagon, surrounded by railroad lanterns, drawn by five or six young men. The wagon was surrounded on all sides by young men and women friends of the bride and groom, with all kinds of bells and noise makers.

The district meeting of the Portsmouth Presbytery, comprising Scioto, Jackson and Lawrence counties, met in the Presbyterian church in Jackson last Saturday.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Horace Thomas of this city, district president. Mrs. J. W. Rich, also of this city, led the devotions, and Mrs. Schaller of day afternoon. Each member is asked to bring a guest.

The Kings' Sons and Daughters of Trinity will meet in business session this evening at the home of Miss Anna Stewart.

Mr. James Yeloy's class of the First Baptist Sunday School will meet Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Sowers.

The Central Christian class of the Central Avenue Baptist church will meet this evening with Mrs. Adelle Kelley on Kendall avenue.

Mr. Otis Trone, of Chillicothe, spent Sunday with his family. Mrs. James Williams, and his two sons, William and David of Fifth street.

The Freshman class of the P. H. S. had their Halloween party Saturday evening in Sed's hall, which was decorated in true Halloween style, with pumpkins, corn, black cats and witches.

Mr. Meeks, of the High school, carried off all honors of the evening by falling on top of the "spinning jenn".

Mr. Harry Porter's entertainment was beyond a doubt the best feature of the evening. Mr. Porter is quite a genius and gave a few examples of his skill by imitating voices of all animals and fowls found on a farm, and reproducing, locally, the exact music of the city report a splendid meeting.

The delegates from this city report a splendid meeting. Every one of the ten delegates from Portsmouth took a prominent part in the discussion. The delegates were guests of honor at a chicken dinner at the Methodist church, with the ladies of the Presbyterian church as hostesses.

NEW MANLY PASTOR GAVE FIRST SERMON

Rev. L. I. Hart, pastor of Manly church, delivered his first sermon in Portsmouth Sunday night and every person in the immense congregation is today loud in his praises of Rev. Hart.

The pastor and his family have been quarantined for the past two weeks with diphtheria, and when it was announced Saturday that he would be able to preach at the Sunday service, almost every member was present to hear him.

The morning hour was devoted to Rally Day services, when 519 enrolled at the Sunday school hour. The program consisted of songs and recitations by the younger members of the school. Rev. Hart gave a short talk at the close of the services.

Rev. Hart is a young man with a pleasant voice and pleasing personality. He has a splendid delivery, and at the evening service when he delivered his first sermon, he made a most favorable impression on the audience.

Rev. Hart took for his sermon, "Transformation of Character," taking his text from Second Corinthians 3:18. In part he said: "All creation is but a mirror in which the honest student can see God. Illustrations are drawn from the starry heavens, the ocean, the towering mountains, but the finest insect is greater than any of these because it contains the life principle that speaks the loudest for God."

"The more we think upon a subject, the more like the subject we become. Hence, when honestly studying the works of God, we are transformed more and more into his own image. This transformation must needs be gradual. It can be readily illustrated by a noted picture. First is the bare canvas; second, the prepared canvas; third, the chalked outline, and finally the finished product that so fascinates the beholder. Thus is God's image impressed upon the one who honestly looks for him in all creation."

"Those persons who claim that God can do all for a soul in an instant, are mistaken. It is more today than yesterday, more next year than this, and so on through life and eternity. Gold may be gold, but none of us doubt but that there is more gold in a $20 piece than there is in a $5 one. So the growth in the Christian's life may be the same in essence, but surely more in qualities."

"God takes but a night to create a mushroom, but alas! what a oak and it defies the elements of the weather, and only sinks its roots deeper in the rocks and mountains.

"Even so are we day by day to become more and more like the image of God, being rooted and grounded in Him in His forever and forever."

On the Way to Christmas

It's November, and the pretty fall days are fast slipping away. Ere we know it, we will be plunged into another Christmas season. None know better than a big store like this, what that means. We have thousands and thousands of people who continually look to us for their wants and needs at this season, the same as all others, and we feel keenly the responsibility of trust as do we sincerely appreciate the honor of serving so many.

We are not urging you to do your Christmas buying already, although this is November, but we want you to know that in our zealousness to serve you, in the most satisfactory way, as we have always tried to, we have had our holiday lines come in earlier than usual this year. Would it surprise you to know that The Big Store, right now, is stocked with almost its entire Christmas lines! With but few exceptions, this is true, and it is to the advantage of the buying public. You now have a Christmas Store for two months. You perhaps are one that likes to make selections in advance of the great crowds—now is your opportunity. Choosing is much better; merchandise is fresh and the clerks have more time to assist you in your shopping.

Our Receiving Department is Busy

For the past two weeks our receiving department has been rushed, while the breaking open and the unpacking of cases, boxes and bundles has caused nearly every department in the store to scheme for space in which to stock the merchandise. Tables are full, shelves are packed, and counters are fairly groaning under the weight of an abundance of winter and Christmas merchandise. And more is coming every day.

Yes, we're ready for you. Ready if you want the very best fall and winter merchandise that money can buy, with the greatest stocks to choose from, or ready if you are far-sighted enough to begin thinking of your holiday buying which must necessarily be at the door of the immediate tomorrow. At any event, the advantage is yours, and The Big Store, the great home store for Economy, is yours to serve you.

HON. GEO. R. WENDLING IS COMING FOR A WEEK

At the Ministerial Association held Monday morning it was arranged to have Hon. George R. Wendling come to Portsmouth and deliver his famous series of lectures. Mr. Wendling will give a series of lectures in one of the centrally located churches, which will be decided upon later. The course will begin Sunday, December 8, and for the series the association expects to charge $1. The organizations of the different churches will be given ten per cent of the receipts and if there are any proceeds for the Ministerial Association it will be used for benevolent and philanthropic work.

The following testimonial from Mercer, Pa., by Rev. John S. Duncan, D. D., pastor of the First Christian church, speaks for itself:

work Mr. Wendling is a consummate artist."

GOOD CROWD AT FIRST BAPTIST

RIVER NEWS

Captain Harry Donnelly expects to reap a harvest with his big motor boat next season carrying excursion parties down to the government dam site near Indian Run.

The Sheridan-Kirk Contract Company's big dredge boat Kanawha, is now moored opposite York Place. The boat has been used in laying pipe across the Ohio at New Boston for the United Fuel and Gas Company, but the river got too high and the work had to be temporarily abandoned.

The steamer Dun Patch passed up Saturday with Ben Raikes' big junk fleet, which is returning from Green river and bound for Coal Branch for the winter.

Rev. J. F. Baumann, who went to Pomeroy last week to hold communion services, is expected home Tuesday afternoon.

Burned Mortgage At Church Sunday

Sunday was a great day in the history of the First Christian church, both financially and numerically.

To begin with there were 741 present at the Bible school, and of course the officers and teachers were delighted.

Financially, the church never has had a more glorious day, for almost $1,000 were raised to help liquidate the debt hanging over the congregation. The money came easy and with very little effort, much to the delight of the popular pastor, Rev. Crayton S. Brooks, who at a given signal put the large crowd in an uproar by good humor by burning a $1,500.00 mortgage. As the paper went up in smoke, cheers swept through the packed auditorium. The members have worked hard and faithfully for the "Church of the Cordial Welcome," and they were pleased to have a vivid demonstration that the debt was being whittled steadily down.

The largest contributors to the fund raised Sunday are given below:

$92.80; Mrs. Howland's class, $84.00; John Ault's class, $31.50; C. M. Howland's class, $18.00; Section No. 1, $50.00; Section No. 2, $30.50; Section No. 3, $50.00; Section No. 4, $18.00; Section No. 5, $15.00.

Owls Are To Meet

A big time is expected at the Owls meeting tonight. All members are urged to be present as there is much important business to transact. There are also several candidates to take the work which will make them members. So put on your wise looks and fly to the hall and witness the initiation of the new members. Following the business meeting a social session will be held.

MAKES PLEA FOR PURITY IN BALLOTS

Rev. W. H. Christian of the Central Presbyterian church, delivered a strong sermon on politics Sunday. Taking for his subject "The Deceiver Unmasked," he made a strong plea for national purity and among the striking sentences he used in unmasking the impure foods were:

"We pay money for fruit jam that is made without fruit."
"We pay for potted chicken that grunted in the farm yard."
"For all wool goods that never said Bah."

"For fruit flavors that are made of coal tar and benzoin acid."

Rev. Christian states that the times demand good judgment and men of strong character and backbone who will go to the ballot box and cast their vote for men who will honor the country. He spoke of senators and representatives who promised to vote one way and then did exactly the opposite. He spoke of men who catered to the vote of a religious denomination, looking for the religious vote thereby placing religion in politics.

Sciatica and Neuritis

"If you could spend a half day in our store and hear the words of thanks—the honest expressions of gratitude from people who have not been free from pain before for years, you would understand our enthusiasm and our earnest desire that every sufferer within reach should learn of this new prescription, 'Nurito.'"

It is just a patent medicine, and it does not contain the slightest trace of narcotics or opiates. A physician of extensive practice in New York is responsible for this purely ethical prescription. His brother physicians have taken up the use of it and its fame has extended until it reaches from coast to coast.

"Nurito" has done so much in relieving cases of the longest standing—cases which other remedies have been unable to relieve—completely banishing the uric acid from the system and thus removing the cause of all rheumatic diseases, that it sounds too good to be true.

But it is true. We will show you proof backed by affidavits—testimonials from people who have been cured of their long-continued sufferings—who have been given up hope to call, telephone or write us for "Nurito." We give you positive assurance that you will secure complete relief by its use. A $1 box will convince you.

Priest Says Charity Has Failed and That the Church Must Begin to Consider Socialism!

That the Socialist movement is gaining strength every day and that the people of the United States must prepare to face the movement with intelligence was the warning uttered by Father M. W. Ross of St. Albans' church, in his sermon at the afternoon service yesterday, says the Superior (Wis.) Telegram of Oct. 21.

"The man who ignores Socialism today is either misinformed, is not informed at all, or is a coward who does not dare to deal with the issues of the present day," said he.

"Socialism is a movement which is shaking the foundations of all Europe. A movement before which kings and emperors tremble and which is gaining strength in this country every day. We must prepare to face the fact."

"We as Christians are looking for the coming of a day when our Lord Jesus Christ will be recognized as King, and Lord of Lords. Looking out over the world, and recognizing the strength of this movement, if it is true as has been said, that it is anti-religious, then it is the duty of every man to go forth and fight the movement even unto death."

"It has been said that Socialists are bad men, that they are infidels who hate, revile and seek to destroy the sanctity of the home."

"Even if this were true, if every man in the Socialist movement lead an evil life (which is not true), that would not make Socialism bad. If I knew that every Socialist in this country was bad and that the theory of Socialism was right, I would nevertheless have to give my allegiance to the movement without question."

"But the charge that Socialists are evil in their lives is a lie. I have among my personal acquaintances men of pure and honorable character, who are as enthusiastic for the movement as any Socialist orator who ever stood on a soap box—men who are giving their time, thought and money to build up the movement."

"It is true that there are bad men, who live impure and unwholesome lives, but that is no argument for condemning Socialism. If we accepted this as an argument we would be forced to condemn Christianity itself."

"The thing we must look to is the principle of the movement and not the character of the men in the movement."

Father Ross also held that the fact that those in authority were opposed to the Socialist movement did not condemn it for Christ Himself had been opposed by the leaders of His time.

"It is also argued against Socialism that it will overthrow the present state of society."

"This is absolutely true. But let us consider—is the present state of society such as to develop all the good there is in man, does it give him all that his Creator intended, does it bring justice or does it not rather foster injustice?"

"It is said that Socialism means many things. It is a fact that the name is applied to many movements, from mild efforts at social reform to the theory which advocates direct action, the destruction of the present social state by violence if need be to make place for the new."

"But the fundamental principle on which all Socialists agree is that Socialism is a movement to bring about a condition where the people as a whole own the tools of production and distribution."

"This is the essential thing. Along with this men build up different theories. However, the differences are in the non-essentials, the fundamental principles they all agree on. The thing for us to determine is whether or not this thing will bring about a condition more favorable to Christian life than that of the present day. If so, it is our duty to do all in our power to further this movement."

Father Ross told of his investigations while in New York City

this summer, of the great organizations which had been built up to alleviate the misery on the poor in that city.

"But with all these wonderful organizations in that great city, where millions are spent each year, they do not begin to meet the needs. There are thousands of people in that city tonight who are starving. Because of the inadequacy of the provisions for the alleviation of these conditions, the charity workers must investigate before giving relief—and while they investigate the people die."

"When I asked the workers in these organizations what they thought of Socialism I found that the great majority of them believed in it. They believe it to be the only solution of the terrible conditions now existing. The consensus of opinion among the workers who come in actual contact with these conditions is that the coming of a Socialist state will remedy these conditions."

"We as Christians must face these facts. If Christ were living today among men as He did once, would He not take an interest in these matters?"

"If we have read the Gospels, we know that he would."

"The charge is made by Socialists that organized Christianity is against them because it is largely supported by the rich, those who pile up wealth at the expense of the poor. They say that it does out charity instead of justice."

"This is sometimes fearfully true. But the church as a whole does not tolerate injustice. It is the fault of individuals that this condition exists, not that of the organization as a whole."

"After a study of this question I have reached the conclusion that it is the duty of the man who believes in the Eternal God and the All Merciful Christ to stand out on the firing line and fight for the cause of the working people."

"This question deserves your consideration and it is possible that after a study of this greater worldwide movement, which is an attempt to bring order out of chaos, that you will reach the conclusion that instead of being antagonistic to Christianity it is the ray of hope shining down into the present darkness, and that it will hasten rather than retard the coming of the Kingdom of the Compassionate Christ."

A FINE LECTURE GIVEN BY PROF. J. E. HAGGERTY

A large and enthusiastic audience attended the lecture given by Mr. J. E. Haggerty, Ph. D., of the Ohio State University at Columbus, Ohio, last night at St. Mary's hall, under the auspices of the Scioto County Federation of Catholic Societies.

Proceeding the lecture a short and very select program was rendered and was participated in by the following:

Piano Solo—Miss Lucy Bishop.
Vocal Solo, "Ave Maria"—Mr. Frank Switalski, Sr.

Mr. P. W. Kilcynne presided over the meeting, and in a few well-chosen words introduced Mr. Nicholas Haggerty, a citizen of Portsmouth, who gave a short and very interesting to-the-point talk on "Socialism."

Dr. J. E. Haggerty was then introduced to the audience and met a hearty reception. He spoke in a clear and distinct voice, and all those present left the hall with the satisfaction that the time spent at the lecture was a most instructive one; and the knowledge they carried home with them enabled them to be better prepared to handle the various questions of the day.

The subject of Dr. Haggerty's address was "The Apostasy of the Laity." He said in part:

"There is needed a vigorous campaign in our various communities to promote human welfare in purifying politics, in fighting disease, in promoting health, in conserving morals, in uplifting the down-trodden and in giving every man, woman and child a chance for life, health and opportunity. In this warfare the Catholic laymen, in an organized capacity, should take a conspicuous part. Catholics should affiliate with every great movement of civic and social reform which will redound to the honor of God and the glory of the country.

Small Fire In East End

The East End fire department was called to Eleventh and Lincoln streets Monday morning to put out a roof blaze on the home of Al. Dunn. Sparks set fire to the roof in four or five places. The loss will not exceed $50.

The department was summoned by a telephone message. When a box was pulled the wrong alarm was turned in, No. 55, which is located at Front and Thompson streets. Had not a telephone call been received the department would have gone to the wrong place. Crossed wires, it is thought, caused an alarm to be turned in from Box No. 55.

The poor need protection from this kind of exploitation and you should carry on a vigorous crusade against this great enemy of the poor in the name of Him, who, nineteen hundred years ago, drove the money-changers from the temple.

"Where bad housing conditions exist, in the interest of social justice, you should see to it that housing codes are passed by the city councils which guarantee to the poor such home and living privileges as benefit their dignity as human beings.

Peter Kinnear, of Columbus, was the principal speaker at an enthusiastic Socialist meeting, held in the old Orpheum theater, on Chillicothe street, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Kinnear is a fluent talker, and for over an hour he held the undivided attention of his large audience, chiefly members of the Socialist party.

The speakers discussed the issues of the campaign from a Socialistic standpoint and took occasion to say Roosevelt, as well as the standard-bearers of the old parties.

Comrade Lilliar presided over the meeting and made a neat talk in introducing the speaker of the day.

Mr. Kinnear was heard again at the Temple theater in the East End in the evening.

T. J. Ziegler, Walter Bagby and other prominent Socialists will review the campaign in talks to be made on Government square to-night.

A remarkable feature about the capturing of the blue ribbon by the local firm was the fact that

Drunken Boy Was Arrested

Wash Baker, a 17-year-old son of Mike Baker, of Earlytown, was taken off a street car at Eighth and Campbell avenue in a drunken condition by Officer Charles Bard, late Saturday night. The boy was locked up to the city prison and will be turned over to the juvenile court for trial. Several women relatives interceded for the boy Monday, saying he was his mother's only support.

Mayor Tynes Severe In Monday Sentences

Monday morning's session of probate court indicated that Mayor Tynes had arranged a home-coming, judging from the familiar faces before him.

The motley array included those dusky Amazons, Mary Wall and Fronio Hollingsworth. That pair and two lovers, Oscar Harris and a fellow named Saunders, had boldly taken possession of Mrs. Corn Spaulding's home on Thirteenth street during her absence. Saunders made his escape. Harris, who hails from Davis Station, and recognized as a former offender, was fined $10 and given 10 days in jail, and the two women drew $10 and 30 days each.

Frank Baker, of Earlytown, who was released only a week ago, was fined $10 and given 30 days for trying to kick down a door of Martha Dowdy's home when she denied him admittance Saturday night.

VOTE FOR J. I. HUDSON

FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF

State Senator

HE STANDS UPON ONE PLATFORM

His opponent was nominated by the Regular Republican Party and he then submitted his petition for a place on the Ball Moose Ticket. Is he playing with both and will he betray both? Is he for Taft or Roosevelt?

Hudson's record in the State Senate is clean and honest and progressive. He voted for every progressive and humanitarian measure. He voted for all of the 32 measures backed by organized labor. Of the 24 labor and humanitarian measures placed upon the statutes three were his own. Ask Senator Green of the Miners' Organization, Winans of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen or Senator Reynolds of the Machinists' Union.

Seven of his bills were enacted into laws and are now working for the good of the people and the State. Only one, his Good Roads Bill, was vetoed.

The important thing is that he came out clean and honest. Would it not be a good thing to re-elect any member of the General Assembly if he came out clean and honest be he Democrat or Republican?

Hudson was controlled by no man nor set of men. He voted to fulfill every pledge made by his Party to the People.

The next Assembly will be the most important ever held in the history of Ohio. Do you want a new man for State Senator or a man of experience?

CHARITY BALKS AT PRISON BED

Charity Lovely, the English gypsy girl apprehended by the police, Saturday, is still at the city prison awaiting the arrival of her parents who are now in Covington, Ky.

The swarthy complexioned lassie is greatly wrought up over what she terms unwarranted arrest and has refused much of the prison fare and declined the offer of a cot to sleep on, preferring to stand up. She claims to be nineteen years old, but the mother had informed the police that she was only seventeen years of age. "I won't stay at home, that's all there is to it," said the girl, Sunday, when informed that her parents had been notified of her arrest. Charity had met a young son of Treasurer John Timmerman at South Portsmouth recently and has been staying at his home ever since. She frankly acknowledges that she likes him.

NOTICE TO UNION PAINTERS, PAPER-HANGER'S AND OTHERS

Portsmouth, Ohio, Oct. 30, 1912.
I am authorized by Mr. W. E. Martin, 726 Ninth street, Home phone Y-927, who was Business Agent of Local No. 535 at the time the painting and paper hanging was done, to which reference was made by publication, and who was President of this Local up to October 16th, 1912, resigning to accept a Civil Service position, that any who desire information relative thereto should call on him.
Mr. Martin will take much pleasure in relating the facts as they truly were. That he, by reason of his position, knew the whole history of that transaction; and further knows by whom and for what purpose the misleading statement was made.
Mr. Martin unhesitatingly called on the Blade Publishing company and related the facts as they truly were. And further said that Mr. Frick was in no way responsible for the differences that existed at that time among the members; that his dealings with the union had been absolutely fair, and supported his Mr. Frick's position in the matter by proof of painting and paper-hanging done prior to, and later than that to which reference was made.
I appreciate Mr. Martin's fairness in the matter, and expect those in doubt to avail themselves of his broad and comprehensive knowledge relative to this matter, and his uniformly honest disposition toward all.
Yours truly,
ADAM FRICK.

Portsmouth Brick Co. Plant Is Burned Down

An expensive early Sunday morning blaze visited the plant of the Portsmouth Paving Brick Co., located on Chillicothe street, at the foot of Seventeenth street. A loss of several thousand dollars, sustained in the destruction of the main building and damages to the machinery, is covered by insurance. The plant will be out of commission for some time, but will be rebuilt as soon as possible.

It was one of those blazes which spring up unexpectedly from unknown sources and gain tremendous headway in a short time. Discovery of the fire was made shortly after 8:30 Sunday morning by Joe Leslie, night fireman, employed at the plant. Calling Ed Durt, klutender, to his assistance, the two employees made a desperate, but ineffective effort, to extinguish the flames with a line of hose retained in the plant for emergency purposes.

The fire, which apparently originated from an overheated jacket, extending from the furnace under the boilers to the smoke stack, proved too brisk, and Ed Durt started on a run for the nearest firebox. Fire under the single boiler used had been raked out at midnight. There was no fire in the boiler room from midnight until the time of the discovery of the fire.

During the interim between the discovery of the fire and the arrival of the fire department, the Seventh street and the auto truck, the flames gained dangerous headway. Three streams of water playing on them failed to deter them in their efforts to destroy the nucleus of the plant on which its operations depend.

The engine room, the manufacturing building and the shale shed, all frame buildings, were reduced to ashes. All that remains are a few charred posts, a sadly burned tangle and a mass of twisted and crippled machinery. Practically the entire system of machinery is rendered useless.

Eight kilns, operated by the firm, were not damaged, but will necessarily remain idle for want of the material from the mound on which to put the finishing touches. This office, located some distance from the plant proper, facing Chillicothe street, escaped damage, although it was endangered by floating embers. Several small cottages adjoining the office were also subjected to the rain of sparks, but water thrown by the department prevented the flames from catching fire.

Officials of the firm have issued a statement that the work of rebuilding the destroyed structures and reconstructing the damaged machinery would be commenced immediately after the adjustment of the insurance. A period of six weeks will necessarily elapse before the plant can be restored to normal conditions and operations continue in full.

Bike Rider Took A Header; Badly Hurt

A bicycle race came near resulting disastrously for Chas. Hicks, a middle-aged showworker of Eleventh and John streets, at the foot of Court street, Sunday morning.

Hicks and a young neighbor boy, John Hatcher, had been down to the wharfloat, and when they started back decided to speed up Front street. The boy easily took the lead. As Hicks approached Court street he for some reason lost control of the handlebars. The bike swayed from one side to the other, and he was knocked to the street, landing on his head with great force. He was rendered unconscious by the blow and was bleeding from cuts on the face and hands. Pedestrians carried him over against the flood wall and nearby residents quickly applied restoratives. The man revived in about five minutes and after a little rest was able to go his way. The accident attracted quite a crowd.

NOT TO BUILD TILL SPRING

Officials of the Heer Engine Co. have decided to postpone the awarding of the contract for the erection of their new addition until spring. Were the contract to be awarded at the present time and the work commenced, the unfavorable weather would only handicap the workmen in rushing it to completion.

Chris Heer, president and general manager of the firm, announced that temporary sheds would be erected for the purpose of relieving any congestion in the establishment.

CLAIMS BELL IS A BEAT

Frank Truitt, proprietor of the West End hotel, called a police headquarters Sunday evening and gave information against Robert Bell, claiming to be a preacher from Roanoke, Va. He believed Bell to be a board-jumper, saying some of his guests had recognized him as the man who had defrauded a woman boarding housekeeper at Waverly recently. He said Bell wore an army service hat. He had beaten him out of two meals, but he did not care for that, simply wishing to avoid others getting caught up by him. The police were furnished with a description of the man.

PLATFORM OF THE PROHIBITION PARTY

The Prohibition Party in National Convention at Atlantic City, N. J., July 10, 1912, recognizing God as the source of all governmental authority, makes the following declarations of principles and policies:

1. The alcoholic drink traffic is wrong; is the most serious drain on the wealth and resources of the nation; is detrimental to the general welfare and destructive of the inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. All laws taxing or licensing a traffic which produces crime, poverty and political corruption, and spreads disease and death, should be repealed. To destroy such a traffic there must be elected to power a political party which will administer the government from the standpoint that the alcoholic drink traffic is a crime and not a business, and we pledge that the manufacture, importation, exportation, transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages shall be prohibited.

We favor:

2. Suffrage for women on the same terms as for men.
3. A uniform marriage and divorce law. The extermination of polygamy. And the complete suppression of the traffic in girls.
4. Absolute protection of the rights of labor, without impairment of the rights of capital.
5. The settlement of all international disputes by arbitration.
6. The abolition of child labor in mines, workshops and factories, with the rigid enforcement of the laws now flagrantly violated.
7. The election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.
8. A Presidential term of six years, and one term only.
9. Court review of Post Office and other departmental decisions and orders; the extension of the Postal Savings Bank system, and of Rural Delivery, and the establishment of an efficient parcels post.
10. The initiative, referendum and recall.
11. As the tariff is a commercial question it should be fixed on the scientific basis of accurate knowledge, secured by means of a permanent, non-partisan tariff commission, with ample powers.
12. Equitable graduated income and inheritance taxes.
13. Conservation of our forest and mineral reserves, and the reclamation of waste lands. All mineral and timber lands, and water powers, now owned by the government, should be held perpetually, and leased for revenue purposes.
14. Clearly defined laws for the regulation and control of corporations transacting an interstate business.
15. Efficiency and economy in governmental administration.
16. The protection of one day in seven as a day of rest.

To these fundamental principles, the National Prohibition Party renounces its long allegiance, and on these issues, invites the cooperation of all good citizens, to the end that the true object of government may be attained, namely equal and exact justice for all.

Say, Mr. Progressive, if you are truly progressive, take note of the above and register one for true progressiveness on Nov. 5th. adv.

Jack Ryder Has Big Boost For Bridwell

With Joe Tinker as manager, the Reds will at least fill up a deep hole in the infield, which has been vacant ever since the departure of Tom Corcoran, five years ago, says Jack Ryder in the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Corcoran was one of the greatest shortstops that ever played ball, and his place has never been even partially filled in the Cincinnati line-up. No team can ever make a grand change in a league race without a first-class ground-covering shortstop. The shortstop is the most important position on a team, outside of the pitcher and catcher. It is the hardest place to play right up to the handle, because as much ground must be covered as by the second baseman, with a much longer make. Second base has been called the keyhole position, but shortstop really deserves that title.

Tom Corcoran filled the place admirably. Tom was not a showy player, and not remarkably fast on his feet, though possessed of a fair turn of speed. But his judgment of players and his batting ability was so keen that he was known just to play for any batter, and so covered a world of ground. His throwing was very accurate, and he was one of the best hand-droppers of thrown balls that ever played in the National League. His method of touching base-runners was so capital and scientific that he was seldom spiked or injured in any way, and yet he never failed to get the ball on his man if it arrived from the catcher in time. He was an artist in this line. Corcoran was always very fair and generous to the recruits who joined the club. He was of the greatest help to Miller Huggins, when Huggins came down from St. Paul to play second base for the Reds, 11 or 12 years ago. Huggins was at that time a smart and accomplished player, but he learned a vast amount about the play from second base from the veteran shortstop. These two made much the best pair on the defense that the Reds have ever had since the second signing. When Al Bridwell came to the Reds from Columbus in the spring of 1910, Corcoran, instead of spurning the ambitious youngster who was threatening to take his place on the team, laid himself out to teach him all the fine points of major league ball that Bridwell had not learned in the minors. Tom took the recruit under his wing, and the training season of Jacksonville that year and gave him the best he had. It was largely owing to the coaching and sound advice of Corcoran that Bridwell soon developed into a high class shortstop, for he was a student of the game and absorbed everything that the older player told him, and he put it to good use. It was a great mistake to let Bridwell go away from the Reds, and the team would have done much better in succeeding years if he had been retained in the line-up.

IN BOSTON THEY REGARD TINKER AS RED MANAGER

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—If there was ever any chance of Joe Tinker remaining an integral part of the Chicago Cub machine under the Evers regime, it disappeared with Tinker's own statement that he could never play as well under the new manager as he had when both he and Evers were under Frank Chance. This very thing was pointed out after the announcement of Evers' appointment, and it now becomes imperative, whether he wants to or not, for the new manager to permit Tinker to look on to Cincinnati where a berth as manager of the Reds awaits him. Evers and Tinker have ever been jealous of each other and as recently as last month had a little hand-to-hand session on the Chicago bench one afternoon, resulting from an argument about a play that came up. That one couldn't be expected to work under the Evers was all but a foregone conclusion, not only because Tinker and Evers have all along been more or less jealous of each other, but also because Tinker and Murphy had passed him a direct slap in appointing Evers rather than himself. And Tinker, it will be recalled, was always in charge of the team when Chance left it for any reason.

There isn't the slightest question about Garry Herrmann getting Tinker's release now that he has publicly stated that he is the man to succeed Hank O'Day. None knew this better than the Cincinnati club owner himself when he made the statement. It is one of the mysteries of National league baseball, but the fact remains just the same, that Mr. Murphy of the Cubs usually has to do just about as G. Herrmann says whenever it comes to a show-down. Garry is in a position, at any and all times, all because of a little clerical error, to put a hammerlock hold on the Cubs' president. If Murphy can induce his side partner, Horace Fogel, of the Phillies, to let Mike Doohan leave in a ship, connected deal which he can go to the Cubs, Tinker passing on to Cincinnati, so much the better for Murphy. But if he cannot, the Murphy-Evers combination will have to be satisfied with Grant of Cincinnati, who has played a pretty fair shortstop game himself.

Youngsters Form Foot Ball Eleven

Football, in Portsmouth, is not only indulged in by the older youth and young men of the city, but among the juveniles, as well. A team of young men, known as the "Youngsters," was organized and has already hooked a game with an Ironton eleven. The team, which is composed of the following: Williams, of the Excelsior Shoe company, as manager and captain, is being organized and has already hooked a game with an Ironton eleven. The team, which is composed of the following: Williams, of the Excelsior Shoe company, as manager and captain, is being organized and has already hooked a game with an Ironton eleven.

The team averages 110 pounds, but is composed of some of the most gritty little exponents of the game as have the local aggregation a royal reception ever been turned out on vacant lots. And the local players are expecting the creditable feature of the training of the team.

How It Feels To Play In First College Game

How it feels to the fellow who is playing in a "big" varsity football game, one that means everything to himself and to his team, is rather strikingly told by Henry F. Francis, a graduate of last year's Yale eleven, in one of the very readable series of articles he is writing upon "Football Requirements." Francis takes up the Yale-Princeton game of 1909, tells how he felt while awaiting the contest and also relates one of those little characteristic dressing room premonitions, the last-remembered move on the part of the coaches just before the eleven is run out upon the field. Here is the way Francis tells it:

"To play in the final or 'big' game is the ambition of every football player. My first big game was the Yale-Princeton game in 1909. On the morning of the game we awoke to find the day a perfect one for football as it was cold with a slightly frosty sky. The coaches had the team spend the night before at the infirmary, in order to give the players perfect rest and quiet. After a large breakfast at 8 o'clock at the training table, the team went to the chapel, after which the coaches made a runner player who might be given a chance at the Princeton team take a cab and go out to the country club to rest up and keep away from the excitement which always prevails about the campus the day of the game.

"Well, we got to the field about 20 minutes before the game was to be held, and were rushed into a dressing room under the baseball stands, where I sat at a table and waited.

"It was delivered by one of the head coaches, and it so impressed me that I shall try to put it down here in the way he gave it. He said:

"Men, you are now to play a game which either ruins or makes your life. It will be the last chance you have of not being a failure. Are you going to leave the university as a failure, or are you to go out and be able to look every man in the face and be glad that you are alive? You fellows are able to wipe out all past records, for you have the power and nerve to do anything. But it is going to take every bit of this year's life to do it. Princeton team. We coaches have taught you everything that we can. Now it is up to you to prove yourselves and show that you are a real Yale team. Some have said you lack guts. Go out and make those false charges swallow that accusation, for I believe you have it in you to look 'em.

"Men, are you going out of college with a torn uniform has often made a hero out of a really rotten player."

McFarland Says He'll Quit Ring

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Packer McFarland has announced that he would retire from the prize ring after his forthcoming fight with Young Jack O'Brien in Philadelphia next month. He said he was tired of the continued rigors of training, and that the lure of the dollar had lost some of its draw.

"There are only three fights I would like to get before I quit," McFarland said. "I'd like to take on Al Volante, the champion, I'd like to meet Jack Britton, a Chicago boy who is a corner, and I would like to get into the ring with Battling Nelson, just to give him a whipping."

"I have made about $200,000 in the last five years, and that is why I am ready to quit. My best winning was with Matt Wells, the Englishman. He drew down $10,000 for that fight. My battle with Jimmy Brill in San Francisco brought me $5,000. I have had a number of smaller fights right along and cleaned up nearly $200,000 a year."

"I never bet on myself. It never has been a paying proposition to bet, though, and I quit it."

In the enemy's own territory Saturday, Ohio State succeeded in walking over its hoodoo of the past five years, thereby defeating Case, 31 to 0. It was a decisive victory and the worst drubbing administered the Cleveland team in the past ten years.

Marion Briggs, who played at quarterback for a greater part of the game, performed brilliantly. His tackling was deft and deadly and his line plunging tremendous. Three successive times he took the ball for a gain of fifteen yards.

By winning the game, State makes itself a strong contender for the state championship. Oberlin, although defeating Wooster 27 to 0, put up a ragged game. Consequently State looks for the coming championship struggle with Oberlin has taken a perceptible jump.

In Saturday's game, State was miserably to Oberlin's advantage in expert trick plays. Very few were resorted to. They were not necessary. State relied on the old fashioned and time-worn style of straight football.

Just wait until these Americanized Greeks at home and show the Turkey the glory of the football. It will take only about 15 seconds for the flag of Greece to appear.

Jack Hendricks will manage the Reds. He has just let his contract on a 1913 contract. He was under Hendricks' management.

It looks as if Matt McIntyre would not get back to the majors immediately. The San Francisco club has been told that he is in the vicinity of the Golden Gate next season.

Outfielder Dan McMiller of the Washington Americans doesn't expect to return in 1913. He was sent down for a 30-day suspension from Manager Griffith.

Smoke House Team Won Foot Ball Game

Semi-pro football was auspiciously introduced into Portsmouth Sunday afternoon at the Millbrook stadium, when the Smoke House eleven, captained by Hiddy Beers, waded through a strong team from Chilliwothe to a victory of 12 to 0. The game was cleanly played and not a wrangle or dispute arose to mar the occasion.

WILL STAND PAT ON THE RED SOX

"We have shut up shop. We're out of the baseball market. We have all the players we want for 1913. We are satisfied with what we have. No more purchases or trades."

This is the statement of James R. McAleer, president of the world's champion Red Sox, just before he left to join the Comiskey hunting party. It means that Jimmy McAleer is satisfied with his team, that he will start next season as he finished the past season. And it means that he expects to do as well next year as he has done this year—or better.

It is evident that he will win the 1913 pennant more decisively than he won this year's, even if the opposition is stronger.

Nothing to worry about. McAleer is the major league manager. He is out of the baseball market, that he is satisfied with what he has. He breaks all records of early announcements. The others will be buying and selling and trading until well into next season. But McAleer has all he wants. He has nothing to do till tomorrow."

He need not worry all winter. The Red Sox president retains all of his present regulars and substitutes. He has purchased one new outfielder, Walsh, of Fall River, and two new shortstops, Scott of Youngstown and Christman of Lawrence, in the New England league. He has exercised his option on Harold Lavin, the ex-Boston high school infielder, now with Jersey City.

He stands pat on his catchers. The only new men not yet mentioned whom he has purchased are Pitchers Harry Hooper of Worcester, Brant and Martin of Deamont, Tex., Watkins and Alsworth of Youngstown, and Foster of Houston, Tex. He also has recalled Leonard from Denver.

McAleer Feels Into Future. McAleer is looking farther into the future than 1913. That is why he has taken on another outfielder, two more shortstops and many pitchers. He has to count on the eventual retirement of one or more of his perennial outfielders, also on the time, some day, when "Heinie" Wagner will quit, not withstanding that Wagner, for instance, is going better than ever this year. But "Heinie" has been eleven years in baseball, and the outfielders need more than the one substitute they now have. It is not too early to begin the selection and training of future stars.

McAleer may well be contented with his present team. It won this year's pennant and the world's title, and next year it is bound to improve for nearly all of the members are young.

Size up the great outfield trio, for instance. Tris Speaker is only 23 years old and has been in the game but five years. Harry Hooper is 24 and has played league baseball only six years before this. Lefty Lewis for Hooper's age, with five years in league baseball before this year. Hendrickson is 25 and has been but three years in the professional game.

The infield is a bit different. The men, as a rule, are older. Here are their ages and the years they played professional ball before 1912, respectively: Smith, 31; 2; Verkes, 24, 3; Gardner, 25, 5; Bradley, 25, 7; Engle, 28, 10; Kruz, 23, 3; Wagner, 22, 11; Hall, 29, 0.

Bill Carrigan is 28, with six years' league experience before 1912; Cady's figures are 24 and 4, and Nunnemaker's 22 and 4. Which provides a catching staff for a long time to come.

Youthful Bunch of Pitchers. The pitchers are even younger. Here are their ages and years, respectively, in professional baseball: Wood, 22, 6; Page, 21, 8; O'Brien, 28, 4; Collins, 25, 4; Beckett, 29, 2; Hall, 26, 7.

All of the new men purchased are youngsters. This roster gives McAleer 28 men from whom to choose his pennant chasers of 1913, with all of his regulars and substitutes now in good condition, with ears of baseball ahead of them.

The purchases of two new shortstops not only provides recruits who may fill Wagner's shoes some day, but youngsters who will be ready to step into the shoes of substituting for the Sox outfielders. Walsh has been touted as an exceptionally clever outfielder and will be given a trial.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Before the Nationals can be figured as having an equal chance with their rivals in next year's pennant race, Griffith will have to develop one more consistent pitcher. He has a great pair in Johnson and Grover, but it takes more than two consistent performers to carry a team through a season.

Griffith must develop, for he cannot buy a seasoned pitcher. The time when a club could buy players that it needed, has long since passed. A winning major league team these days must develop its own pitching staff.

Griffith will have quite a corps of young pitchers in his training camp next spring. The most promising of these undoubtedly is Carl Cashen, because he was given a chance to get some experience in the last campaign. Cashen needs control and he should for much improved in this respect by next season. Engle, too, is sure to win a position as a pitcher, but he is still a green hand and needs a lot of experience.

In addition Griffith will have Galla and Ayers, the latter from the Virginia State League. Then there is Deak, who to develop one more consistent pitcher. He has a great pair in Johnson and Grover, but it takes more than two consistent performers to carry a team through a season.

The orchestra gave several selections during the morning service and the school rendered a number of vocal selections. Miss Berry and Miss Alma Dav- is were on the program for vocal solos and their numbers were features of the rally day services. The Junior and Primary de- partments gave several numbers but the most important feature was the address given by Rev. W. H. Christian on "Loyalty." He talked to the Sunday School boys and girls for thirty minutes or more and every word was a lesson to the boys and girls.

A good sized collection was taken which will be used for immi- grant work.

Moves To Peebles. R. D. McClure former travel- ing salesman for the Weston-Bak- er Grocery Company, has moved from Washington C. H. to Pee- bles where he has purchased the grocery department in the David- son-Shoemaker Company. Mr. McClure will take charge of the department at once.

Taken To Hospital Officer Fred Goltz took Perry Holsinger, Nile township farmer, to the Athens hospital for Sher- iff Eckhart, Saturday. Holsinger seemed greatly concerned over his wife and children, for he talked about them constantly.

Dr. J. W. Tipton, of Columbus, has been sentenced to a year in the penitentiary because of perform- ing an illegal operation. The pa- tient died.

Four hundred or more were present at the rally day exercises held at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. A splendid program had been ar- ranged by the Sunday School workers and each number ren- dered showed that those in charge of the program had selected the performers with care.

The orchestra gave several selections during the morning service and the school rendered a number of vocal selections. Miss Berry and Miss Alma Dav- is were on the program for vocal solos and their numbers were features of the rally day services. The Junior and Primary de- partments gave several numbers but the most important feature was the address given by Rev. W. H. Christian on "Loyalty." He talked to the Sunday School boys and girls for thirty minutes or more and every word was a lesson to the boys and girls.

A good sized collection was taken which will be used for immi- grant work.

Stock Company At At Grand Tuesday

Hasel and Harry Shannon, Jr., with The Shannon Stock Com- pany at the Grand for a five-night engagement, commencing Tues- day night, November 5, are two very clever performers, having had a long experience in the drama and vaudeville. These young performers, who are now twenty and twenty years, began their stage careers at the ages of five and six years. The Shannon chil- dren, as they are known, starred for several seasons in "The Bank- er's Child," written especially for them. They played in this play in nearly every city in the union, having had seven years of success with the play. These young people are now stockhold- ers in "The Shannon Stock Com- pany," and are playing the princi- pal roles and doing specialties between acts. "Receipt in Full" will be the opening bill Tuesday night, when ladies' free tickets will be given. Sale limited to two hundred.

PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

WILLIAM E. PRICER

I believe in the principles of Progressive Government as advo- cated by Theodore Roosevelt; in the conservation of human re- sources and the protection of men, women and children in the workshop, factories and mines. That the wage earners, laborers and farmers should have their share in our government and an even chance with capital; that the people should rule. I believe in a pension for the aged in need but not an Alms house. I believe that the matter of charity, but as their due, as interest paid upon the investment of our workingmen's years of toil spent in coal mines and factories, to be given as a mark of respect and honor by grateful people to all who shall reach the non-productive age. I believe that the most correct plan to deal with the tariff is through the creation of a permanent com- mission of non-partisan experts, whose business shall be to study scientifically, a phases of tariff making and tariff effects. I be- lieve that the government must co-operate with the farmers. The welfare of the farmers is the basis need of the nation. The farms are today the heart of our national life and the chief source of our greatness. The government should devote more time to the nation's outlook for health for if we are to achieve that eminence among the powers of the earth to which we pledge our faith it must secure to itself a strong body sur- mounted by a strong brain. I believe in liberal pensions for the veterans of the Civil War suf- ficient to amply provide for their necessary wants in their declin- ing years.

Engineer Mason Is Dismissed By Mayor

A preponderance of evidence 3:30 that afternoon up to 8:15 that morning an alibi resulted in the night, when he got a call to go out promptly dismissed in police court on a run and hurried home to get Monday of William Mason, an N. supper and a change of clothes. He & W. engineer, charged with last week, except Wednesday. Mason, himself, denied the woman's charges and said he had been out of town every night last week, except Wednesday.

Attorney James S. Thomas examined to the court that he had not been retained to prosecute the case and really was not prepared, but inasmuch as it was only to be a preliminary hearing he would proceed. Mrs. Harvey Mason took the stand. She said she was a native of Chillicothe, but now lived on New Seventh street. About 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, October 30th, while she was washing dishes, she heard a knock at the door and as first thought her husband had come in from a run sooner than expected. Instead, she said, it was the accused, and she asked him in doors as she would any other friend. She asked him to remain seated until she had finished her work, but alleged he tried to embrace her. Later, she said, he again assaulted her. Mrs. Mason said that Mason asked her to keep quiet about the affair, but she told her husband as soon as he came home Friday.

Mrs. Mason was vigorously cross-examined by Attorney Edgar G. Miller, but she stuck to her story. Joe Distel, his father and a number of railroad men and others in turn testified to Mason having been howling at the former's place from MADE TALK AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Mr. A. R. Taylor, of Sciotoville, talked at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon on "The Watch and the Man." It was a splendid discourse, which was of especial interest to the railroad men. Mr. Taylor has been wonderfully successful in building up a rural Sunday school and his interesting talk Sunday quickly showed the reason of his popularity in his home Sunday school.

George A. Ditty

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY RECORDER A SELF-MADE MAN

Mr. Ditty has served his country faithfully in war as well as in times of peace. He has been an active worker in the interests of the county and has an excellent record as Infirmary Director.

In the Spanish-American War he served as a member of the Second United States Infantry, and the 34th Colorado Volunteer Infantry. While serving under the Stars and Stripes he contracted the fever and for five months and 25 days was in an army hospital. After the war he was employed at the fire brick plant in this city. With the same ability and perseverance which marked his career he adapted himself to study in order to advance himself. He made a specialty of stationary engineering, gaining his education during his spare hours by a correspondence school course, receiving a diploma from the Scranton Correspondence Schools, having attained an average of 96 1/2 per cent.

Mr. Ditty was engineer at several plants in this city and later engineer at the city works, a position which he filled capably and satisfactorily. For the past two years he has been District Manager of the Woodmen of the World, during which time, with the exception of a single month, he has held the best record of any District Manager in Ohio. His record as Infirmary Director shows his capabilities, and many improvements were made at the institution during his incumbency, including a steam laundry, new water works, and reservoir, a new slaughter house and a complete system of Sanitary Plumbing.

Concerning the Infirmary during the time he was director, F. H. Doyle, State Examiner of Public Books and Accounts, says:

"During the time covered by this examination, from January 1, 1912, to February 1, 1912, the salaries of the several employees, including the superintendent and matron and per diem of directors, were drawn in conformity with the law and no excesses were noted against them. The directors seem to take a deep interest in the affairs of the institution. The records of the meetings of the board and the records of the sale of products from the infirmary are neatly kept."

Mr. Ditty is an example of the possibilities a man by force of character, faithful application to studies and with a practical knowledge of affairs can accomplish. He is in every sense a self-made man, one thoroughly capable of executing the duties involved in the office for which he is an aspirant and to which he will be elected on Tuesday. He is above all a man of the people and has the interests of the people at heart.

CLUB WILL GIVE MINSTREL AT GRAND

The minstrel to be given by The Club will take place at the Grand early in December, this statement being made by F. E. Knox, who will have charge of the show. He stated to The Times Monday that rehearsals will begin in two weeks.

DO YOU WANT Earnes, Penrose or Lorimer for Vice President? Then why vote the Republican ticket, which has no candidate for this office?

The dishonest politicians who ran "that Chicago Convention" will pick out the candidate after election.

Dog Was Half Shot

Officer Rome Arthurs only "half shot" a dog Monday morning. The canine has been loafing around the N. & W. depot and the mongrel was voted a nuisance. Officer Arthurs pulled his trusty revolver on the animal, but it dodged the bullet and the lead failed to touch a vulnerable spot. The last seen of the dog it was headed north with the bullet snugly tucked away in some part of its anatomy.

WHO WAS "HE OR SHE?"

Rich Applegate, a good-natured and obliging driver of an American Steam Laundry wagon, is still wondering as to the identity of the masked person he treated to a joy ride on his motorcycle Halloween. Dick had started home from the Smoke House about 11 o'clock, just after having witnessed a fight between a half dozen fellows in front of Dragdon's store. Suddenly an unknown in woman's attire swung astride the iron rod behind his seat, without saying a word. Dick moved out street with his machine, determined to be "game." Dick purposely looked up every rough spot and bumping place in town, but not a single word of protest came from his unknown companion. Dick wondered whether the masked one was a man or woman, and several times looking down at "her" or "his" feet, but could not form any conclusions. After driving all over the East End and Hill-Top district, he returned to the starting point, Fourth and Chillicothe streets. The other calmly alighted and moved on without a word.
